

International

new titles

Contents

WILDLIFE	1
SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY	3
SPACE	5
TRUE CRIME	6
WORLD AFFAIRS	7
HISTORY	13
CELEBRITY & BIOGRAPHY	15
EXTRAORDINARY PEOPLE	16
FACTUAL ENTERTAINMENT	17
FOOD	19
LIFESTYLE	20
HEALTH	21
TRAVEL	23
PEOPLE & CULTURES	24
AERIALS	25
ARTS	27
SEX & RELATIONSHIPS	28
IN DEVELOPMENT & PRODUCTION	29

Secrets of the Aquarium

Format: 6 x 60
Broadcaster: BBC

Step inside the UK’s largest aquarium in this exclusive series offering behind-the-scenes access into life on the inside. Home to over 4,000 creatures from tiny angelfish to tiger sharks, this state-of-the-art aquarium is run by a team of over 100 keepers where every day presents a new logistical challenge. Featuring big characters and quirky creatures, this underwater adventure celebrates the drama and unpredictability of life in the aquarium.

One Year in the Gardens

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

The Singapore Botanic Gardens, a UNESCO World Heritage site, teems with an extraordinary diversity of tropical wildlife. Over the course of a year, we follow everything from a spoiled juvenile monkey learning how to navigate family politics and a red-legged crane raising her chicks in secret, to a vulnerable native frog trying to find a mate.

The Secret Life of Seals

Format: 1 x 52 (4K)
Broadcaster: SVT

In this captivating documentary, we dive into the magical underwater world of the grey seal. These marine mammals are curious, inquisitive, and as pups, extremely cute. In the Stockholm archipelago, discover how these extraordinary creatures learn to hunt, swim and survive in the harsh, icy waters of the Baltic Sea.

Saving the Wild, Series 2

Format: 2 x 52 (all series: 4 x 52) (4K)

Follow frontline conservationists as they navigate the trials and triumphs of protecting the most endangered species on the planet. In the latest series, come face to face with a herd of wild elephants who are threatening to destroy the very project that is protecting them. We also follow a pack of wild dogs facing extinction as they confront the alarming realities of habitat loss.

The Mass Extinction

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

By 2100, 50% of all the world’s animal species could be extinct due to human activities. We go deep inside jungles, oceans and natural habitats across Asia to understand how climate change is lowering survival rates. This series features diverse wildlife from India’s Asiatic elephants to the Philippines’ green turtles, and activists fighting extinction.

Eco-Heroines, Series 3

Format: 3 x 52 (all series: 11 x 52) (4K)
Broadcaster: Ushuaia TV

Discover the incredible work being done by leading conservationists on a mission to save a local species from the brink of extinction. This truly global series travels to Argentina, New Zealand, the Philippines, Uzbekistan, Switzerland, Peru and more, where we meet the women making a difference. Get up close with pangolins, lemurs, sloths, sharks and manta rays in this groundbreaking series, now in its third season.

Decarbonise: Can We Cool The Planet?

Format: 1 x 52
Broadcaster: SWR, Arte, SVT

A panel of leading global climate scientists, including White House advisor Dr. Jennifer Wilcox, have assembled to consider the most promising, scalable and effective carbon capture solutions which could turn the tide on rising global temperatures. Exploring a variety of approaches and visiting projects in Germany, the UK, Brazil, India, and Iceland, Decarbonise asks, how can we cool the planet and stop global warming's ticking time-bomb?

The Last Defenders

Format: 3 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

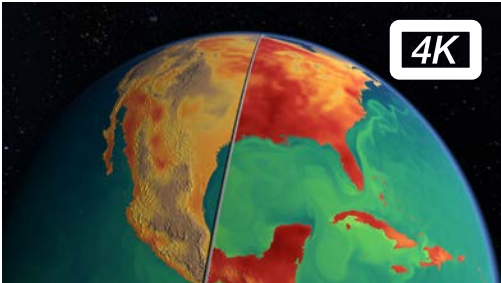

Meet the people risking their lives to protect the extraordinary jungles that tigers, elephants and more call home. They face threats that range from poachers to deforestation and natural disasters. This show explores the incredible lives of these protectors in Indonesia, Thailand and the Philippines, and asks what motivates them to risk so much.

Alaskan Dinosaurs

Format: 1 x 52
Broadcaster: National Geographic

On Alaska's wild frontiers, daring paleontologists push the limits of science to unearth the 70-million-year-old remains of dinosaurs that thrived in extreme environments. On a mission to piece together an extraordinary lost world of arctic dinosaurs, they venture into the vast frozen tundra and uncharted alpine wilderness in this trailblazing series.

Atlas of a Changing Earth

Format: 1 x 50 (4K)

This is the story of how a revolution in one of the most basic of all human enterprises – the making of maps – is shedding new light on our planet's evolution in the wake of rising global temperatures. Featuring striking new images produced by the confluence of satellites and supercomputers, this landmark new film reveals Earth in a degree of precise detail scarcely imagined a generation ago.

Secrets of Size: Atoms to Supergalaxies

Format: 2 x 60 (4K)
Broadcaster: BBC

What would the universe look like if you were a billion times smaller or a billion times bigger? In this mind-bending series, Jim Al-Khalili will look at the universe across its vast range of sizes, from the tiniest objects measuring just a few atoms, to incredible structures of thousands of interconnected galaxies.

Innovation Nation, Series 15-18

Format: 52 x 22 (all series: 234 x 22)
Broadcaster: CBS

In this Emmy Award-winning series, Mo Rocca and his team explore the innovations of the future including a self-driving race car and a wristband that can prevent motion sickness. They also look back at some of history's greatest inventions, as well as shining a spotlight on the variety of creations that are helping to save our planet.

What's the Big Deal?

Format: 5 x 23
Broadcaster: CNA

Can we 3D-print a new heart to escape a family history of heart attacks? How about developing a smart 'wearable' that predicts diseases before you get sick? Join comedian and tech-skeptic Rishi Budhrani as he puts these claims to the test, going beyond the hype to investigate the ethics of how these new technologies could shape our lives.

Super Telescope

Format: 1 x 60
Broadcaster: BBC, Discovery Science, France TV

Discover the inside story of NASA's James Webb Telescope, the most powerful telescope in space. Costing over £8 billion to build, this telescope is over 100 times more powerful than Hubble, and will allow astronomers to capture images of the first stars and galaxies. Will this incredible feat of engineering enable us to capture the deepest image of our universe?

Killer Asteroid: Defending Earth

Format: 1 x 50 (4K)

When natural disasters threaten, we turn to science and technology to warn us to seek shelter or flee. But can they face the ultimate threat: speeding projectiles from the depths of space? This gripping film uses CGI to investigate the cutting-edge space missions that are underway to deflect and destroy space objects that threaten our world. Can they save the planet from a killer asteroid?

Space Farmers

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

Space science has already given us GPS, solar cells and even baby formula – can it now revolutionise food production? We explore everything from the genesis of space food at NASA, to new Finnish technology creating protein out of air and scientists in the USA, Europe and Asia using space tech to grow sustainable foods and the next superfood.

Infinity

Format: 3 x 50

This captivating series explores some of the most significant unanswered questions of our time. Does infinity exist? What is beyond the universe? Can there truly be nothing? How did it all begin? Conversations with leading thinkers reveal the latest in scientific research as we explore what infinity means to humanity, question what is beyond our universe and ask - does science have limits?

No Mercy: Eastern European Killers

Format: 8 x 48
Broadcaster: Prima

Of all the hardened criminals in Eastern Europe's Czech Republic, only 46 have been sentenced to life behind bars. Why do these people commit such unspeakable acts? Each episode goes inside the mind of a murderer as they confess their crimes. Featuring police testimony, shocking evidence and face-to-face interviews with the killers themselves.

Click to Ransom

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

With ransomware attacks on the rise, we investigate four cyber hack stories across Asia. Featuring stylized reconstructions and interviews with professionals as they scramble to mitigate damage, we learn how the hackers operate. The devastating consequences of these attacks show the vulnerabilities of the digital infrastructure we rely on today.

Riot Island

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

How did a revolutionary island prison experiment turn into a deadly riot? In the 1960s, a deserted island near Singapore became a prison without bars, praised for rehabilitating hardened criminals. Gripping reconstructions reveal how the island soon became a murder scene that shocked the world and led to a large-scale criminal trial.

Catching a Scammer

Format: 3 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

Across Asia, countless scam victims have lost their life savings. From Taiwanese phone scam syndicates to Singapore's own Tinder Swindler, this true crime series reveals the cat-and-mouse game between investigators and the craftiest criminals. Featuring gripping re-enactments and exclusive interviews with law enforcement, the scammers and their victims.

Flight JK5022

Format: 3 x 47

At 2:23pm on August 20th 2008, Spainair flight 5022 was cleared for take-off, despite prior reports of abnormally high temperatures on board. 90 seconds later, the airborne plane hit the ground, killing 154 people and seriously injuring a further 18. Ahead of the tragic event's 15th anniversary, and after two investigations, this docuseries re-examines the worst crash in Spain's history to understand what went wrong and who is to blame. Could a tragedy like this ever happen again?

The China-Taiwan Consensus

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

In 1992, China and Taiwan finally agreed that there is 'One China' – or did they? Fast forward to today and government tensions are at an all-time high. As Taipei turns its back on the agreement, Beijing applies pressure to assert its sovereignty, semiconductors become bargaining chips and Xi Jinping threatens 'reunification', we ask: how did we get here?

Food. Energy. Water.

Format: 3 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

Climate change and global instability are limiting access to three critical resources - food, energy and water. This series examines the human impact of supply insecurity, and the search for solutions. From a seed vault transforming agriculture in Svalbard, Norway and geothermal energy research in Singapore to Cape Town's recent water crisis aversion.

Ukrainian Women

Format: 1 x 52 (4K)
Broadcaster: ERR

Meet four women whose stories illuminate the experience of the millions fleeing Ukraine. Whether it is Oksana who fled shelling with her baby, Valentina who built a new life on an Estonian farm, or Oksana from Chernihiv who made the monumental decision to return to the warzone. Each story captures the sacrifice and courage at the core of any conflict.

Ukraine: Life Under Siege

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

As the war in Ukraine upends lives, thousands have stepped into critical roles. With exclusive access, we follow the daily struggles of inspiring individuals helping the resistance. From a CEO driving aid into a heavily bombed city, to a Kyiv resident feeding frontline defenders and a Polish architect crossing into the warzone to rescue stranded civilians.

When Titans Clash:
A New World Order?

Format: 3 x 48 (all series: 7 x 48)
Broadcaster: CNA

As the China-US rivalry continues to heat up and global tensions rise, understanding this New World Order has never been more important. With exclusive access, this award-winning series provides balanced coverage and expert perspectives from the USA, China, Taiwan, Japan, South Korea and India.

From North Korea with Love

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

This ground-breaking special unlocks exclusive access to a young generation of North Korean celebrity defectors. Harnessing the power of the internet, these brave Gen Z escapees are finding fame in South Korea and shedding light on the home they left behind. Can these young influencers find acceptance and love in their new home?

Undercover Asia, Series 10

Format: 10 x 48 (all series: 63 x 48)
Broadcaster: CNA

This award-winning series uncovers the hard truths behind Asia's most topical issues, with exclusive access to victims, criminals and campaigners. We investigate everything from the banned pregnancies of Singapore's domestic workers to India's C-Section Epidemic; from the dangers of Korean viral binge-eating trend 'Mukbang' to China's after-school tuition black market; from Thailand's cannabis green rush to South-East Asia's vaping crisis and more.

Prohibited Pregnancy: Singapore

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

Pregnancy for many is a joyous revelation, but for migrant domestic helpers in Singapore, the discovery results in automatic deportation. Many workers resort to illegal abortion methods to avoid losing their jobs for good. Why does Singapore impose such strict rules on domestic helpers, and what happens when these women turn to dangerous solutions?

India's C-Section Epidemic

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

The proportion of C-Section births in India's private hospitals is over three times higher than the WHO-recommended limit, causing untold damage to millions of unsuspecting parents. Our reporters go behind the scenes of these private hospitals, speaking to doctors, experts and bereaved families to discover the truth behind this shocking statistic.

The Truth About Mukbang

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

With over 2 million videos, Mukbang is a global phenomenon. Ordinary people film themselves slurping, chewing and inhaling vast amounts of food while hundreds of millions tune in. But while politicians praise Mukbang in India, China banned Mukbang videos in 2021. Just why have such seemingly harmless eating videos become so controversial?

China's Underground After-School Tutors

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

Scoring well in China's school entrance exams used to mean attending hours of extra tuition, but in July 2021 everything changed. The Chinese government banned after-school tutoring, killing a $100 billion industry overnight. Tuition has now gone underground and only those with money can get extra academic help.

Cannabis Cowboy Country: Thailand

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

In 2022 Thailand became the first Asian country to legalise cannabis, generating global headlines and local economic reward. However, cannabis-related hospitalisations and worrying new research have called this pioneering policy into question. We investigate whether the Kingdom is gambling with its future to cash in on the Cannabis Green Rush.

Southeast Asia's Vaping Crisis

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

Initially conceived as a healthier alternative to smoking, vaping has become a cultural phenomenon. But this youth-led craze has spawned major controversy. Behind the vape cafes and trade shows lies a growing concern that vaping will create its own public health crisis as scientists warn of its dangers and manufacturers refuse to answer questions.

Bali Bombing: The Untold Story

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

The 2002 Bali bombings remain one of the world's deadliest terror attacks, with 202 people killed. Twenty years on, we reveal the unprecedented investigation that followed, with Indonesian and Australian police collaborating to catch the suspects. Featuring exclusive interviews with the police, witnesses and one of the terrorists involved.

Looted: Asia's Stolen Treasures

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

Since the colonial era, thousands of invaluable artefacts have been looted from Asia. We follow a new generation of activists, archaeologists and online sleuths working to get these treasures back – from an Indian bronze in an Oxford Museum and a Chinese silver flask at a London auction house, to one of the Met Museum's most famous Thai statues.

Keeping the Music Alive: In Defiance of the Taliban

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

'Zohra', Afghanistan's first, award-winning female orchestra, wowed audiences across the world. Now, they face great danger as the Taliban returns. The girls still in the country go into hiding, while those who fled are mounting an international rescue campaign. Can they keep the music alive against all odds?

Why Do We Even Work?

Format: 1 x 45 (4K)
Broadcaster: Curiosity Stream, Spicce

Across the world, people are re-evaluating what it means to go to work. Employees now value work-life balance over financial gains. But how much do company benefits impact our career choices? This documentary investigates our relationship with work, visiting businesses across Europe, USA and the UK to understand what it means to be fulfilled at work.

China & The New Pacific

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

From Fiji to Australia, the tranquil waters of the Pacific are stirring. China recently signed a security pact with the Solomon Islands, putting other Pacific nations on edge. With exclusive access, we travel the region to investigate the effects of China's increasing presence, and meet the locals and leaders affected by these geopolitical rivalries.

Japan's Indo-Pacific Plan

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

Japan's Indo-Pacific Plan aims to bridge the Pacific and Indian Oceans by investing in infrastructure projects across South-East Asia. Travelling the region, we investigate whether this offers an alternative to China's Belt and Road Initiative, and if the two Asian giants will cooperate or compete as the US-China regional rivalry heats up.

Looted: Asia's Stolen Treasures

The Exiles: Secretly Deported

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

At the end of World War II, many Asian servicemen were secretly deported from the UK and Australia, tearing them away from their families and livelihoods. This poignant series uncovers the truth behind the UK Merchant Navy and the Australian ‘White Australia’ deportations, with access to newly declassified documents and the veterans’ descendants.

Dun Huang: Ancient Frontier Fortress

Format: 2 x 52 / 5 x 27 (4K)
Broadcaster: Tencent, DR

The Silk Road city of Dun Huang is one of the world’s most important archaeological sites, with an extraordinary history as an ancient frontier fortress. For the first time, Dun Huang’s rise and fall is brought to life through dramatic reconstructions, revealing epic battles fought by ancient generals, scheming warlords and China’s first female emperor.

The Long Road to War

Format: 2 x 58 / 1 x 116
Broadcaster: Netflix

At one time, The Great War was the bloodiest conflict ever to take place. Using rare archive footage and expert interviews, this series revisits the dramatic chain of events that started the war, and explains how the causes of WWI have triggered every major conflict since, up to today, when Europe once again finds itself divided.

Prosecuting Evil

Format: 1 x 83
Broadcaster: Netflix

A portrait of Ben Ferencz, the last surviving Nuremberg Trial prosecutor, who continues to advocate for restitution for Holocaust victims. After the concentration camps were liberated, Ferencz became the trial’s lead prosecutor, which saw him - in his first-ever case - prosecute 22 Nazis responsible for the murder of over a million Jews.

Castro’s Spies

Format: 1 x 50 / 1 x 104

This is the thrilling story of an elite group of Cuban spies sent undercover to the US in the 1990s. From their recruitment and training to their capture on US soil, discover a secret world of false identities, love affairs and betrayal. Using never-before-seen footage and first-hand testimony, Castro’s Spies offers a rare glimpse into the shadowy world of a spy – where the stakes are life and death.

Salme: Ancient Viking Burial Ships

Format: 2 x 55
Broadcaster: ERR

This gripping documentary miniseries investigates the mystery of two 1300-year-old burial ships from the Viking Age. With dramatic reconstructions and previously unearthed evidence, we follow key archaeologists as they investigate these incredible ancient remains and reveal how they fundamentally alter our understanding of Viking Europe.

Era of Library

Format: 2 x 58 (4K)

We live in the Big Data age, where terabytes of data are produced, organised and retrieved every second. Those that own our information have never held more power. To understand how societies have preserved and shared information across time, this series visits historic libraries in China, Korea, the Netherlands, the UK and even goes inside the Vatican’s secretive collection.

Digging for Britain, Series 10

Format: 6 x 60 (all series: 47 x 60)
Broadcaster: BBC

Back for its tenth season, this primetime archaeology series examines the rich history of the UK like never before. Professor Alice Roberts and her team of experts venture back to the Viking Age, unearth Roman treasures and make extraordinary real-time discoveries in this highly popular show which uncovers over 10,000 years of British history.

Mamamoo: Where Are We Now?

Format: 4 x 25 / 1 x 120 (4K)
Broadcaster: Wavve

From Blackpink to BTS, K-pop is taking over the world. Yet despite global success, Mamamoo have long been an underdog, with the band's members refusing to conform to the industry's impossible beauty standards. With intimate access to Mamamoo's professional and personal struggles, from their debut to their current titanic success, this series finds K-Pop's most authentic act planning a world tour, which will take them all the way to the USA.

The Reckoning: Hollywood's Worst Kept Secret

Format: 1 x 78
Broadcaster: Hulu

The exposure of systemic sexual misconduct in Hollywood is one of biggest scandals in pop culture history. Featuring devastating first-hand accounts, this film explores how these revelations catalysed a global movement which led to the evisceration of big players within show business, including Harvey Weinstein.

Emma Barnett Meets...

Format: 35 x 25 (new episodes)
Broadcaster: Bloomberg TV

In a series of one-to-one interviews, award-winning journalist, Emma Barnett meets inspirational leaders from across the globe. From former world tennis champion, Andy Murray, to the inventor of the World Wide Web, Tim Berners-Lee and acclaimed activist and artist, Ai Weiwei, what can we learn from the global icons that shape our world?

Meet Gen Z

Format: 4 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

This first-of-its-kind observational series explores the everyday lives of Gen Z. Through candid interviews and user-generated content, we follow five teenagers from China, Ukraine and more as they navigate the unique challenges and opportunities of the 2020s. From the pandemic to new technology, we uncover what is shaping the generation of tomorrow.

Female Death Riders

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

This extraordinary film follows some of the first women in Indonesia to perform on the 'Wall of Death' - a high-flying act of riding a motorcycle on the vertical walls of a gigantic cylinder. These daring stunts challenge the expected role of women, and showcase the trailblazing generation pushing the physical and societal boundaries of what is possible.

Unbelievable Me

Format: 10 x 45
Broadcaster: WarnerBros. Discovery

Discover the uplifting and inspirational stories of unique individuals from across the world living their lives to the fullest despite their rare medical conditions. See how these amazing people manage to deal with their health problems and discrimination to pursue their dreams. Told with authenticity, integrity and optimism, Unbelievable Me raises awareness of the conditions that each person is living with and celebrates their differences.

Monster Carp, Series 8

Format: 4 x 48 (all series: 28 x 46 & 4 x 77)
Broadcaster: ITV

Best buddies and fishing fanatics Tom and Neil are back for a brand new series hunting down the largest carp in the whole world. This time, in their biggest ever fishing challenge to date, the boys head to France, Croatia and South Africa to battle it out for the ultimate carp fishing trophy. Who will come out on top?

The Grand Fishing Adventure

Format: 8 x 46
Broadcaster: ITV

Join angling icon Ali Hamidi and football legend Bobby Zamora on their fishing adventures. Their bucket list trip around the beautiful British Isles takes them from coast to countryside with plenty of laughs along the way. The boys scope out massive monster sharks, giant catfish and supersized specimen crucians, but can they reel in a catch?

Big Year in Big School

Format: 5 x 47
Broadcaster: Virgin Media One

This heart-warming series follows a class of children in their first year of school. State-of-the-art fixed rig cameras capture the ups, downs, tears and triumphs as they unfold in real time, whilst parents, teachers and child psychologists provide expert behavioural insights into the early years of education. Format rights available.

The World's Greatest Sporting Arenas

Format: 3 x 50
Broadcaster: BBC, TG4, LIC

Discover the history, architecture and culture of the world's most remarkable sporting arenas. From Norway to Korea, Mexico to Croatia, these state-of-the-art arenas have played host to iconic moments in sport history. Meet the people, from engineers to athletes, that bring these incredible constructions to life.

SupermodelMe: Revolution

Format: 10 x 48 (all series: 46 x 48)
Broadcaster: AXN

This award-winning modelling competition with a difference pits 12 fast-rising models in an ultimate face-off. Competing in intense physical tasks and high-stakes photoshoot challenges, the prize is the cover of Harper's BAZAAR and a global Storm Model Management contract. Featuring leading image-makers and influencers as mentors and jurors.

Garage Dreams

Format: 26 x 26
Broadcaster: Motortrend, A+E

Strap in for the ride of a lifetime in this entertaining series that brings together a diverse cast and gripping tales from the garage. Dive into the modern world of auto culture and discover the connection between mankind and machines through heart-warming human stories of triumph, commitment, pride and passion.

SupermodelMe: Revolution

Great British Bites

Format: 20 x 30
Broadcaster: BBC

Celebrate the best of British cuisine in this family-friendly series touring the most exciting food festivals around the country. Across England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, join a host of chefs and food enthusiasts who uncover farming secrets, share tasty tips and teach us how to get the best value produce for a bargain price.

Zero Waste Kitchen

Format: 6 x 23
Broadcaster: CNA

Chef Isaac Henry and his zero waste gurus are on a mission to maximise every ingredient in their kitchen. From wilted greens to animal innards and even fish scales, Isaac and his team are rethinking the idea of eating sustainably. What culinary delights will they be able to conjure up with their newfound skills and ingredients?

Taiwan Bites

Format: 8 x 45
Broadcaster: Taiwan+

Taiwanese food is surging in popularity, and American-Taiwanese chef, Eric Sze, is on a mission to uncover the truth behind the hype. In this first-ever global Taiwanese food show, Eric travels the world from New York and Europe to Taiwan, exploring everything from bubble tea and traditional dishes to vegetarian food and Taiwan's 24-hour food culture.

That's Wine

Format: 6 x 30 (4K)

Experience the rich culture of winemaking across today's 'ancient world'. From the world's oldest winery in Armenia to the stunning vineyards of Georgia, each episode journeys through time and place to meet winemakers who are preserving and revitalising tradition. Visiting Greece, Cyprus, Lebanon and more, discover the stories and flavours that have shaped the world of wine for millennia.

Gemstone Journeys

Format: 2 x 52 / 4 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

Why are gemstones so valuable? And how do they make the journey from the ground into stunning pieces of jewellery? From the sapphire mines of Sri Lanka to the emerald mines of Colombia and the diamond mines of Sierra Leone, we travel back to the source in search of rare and precious stones. We follow jeweller Shahzeem Pasha as he creates beautiful, bespoke pieces for the most select clients, meeting top gemstone dealers and experts along the way.

Remarkable Living, Series 5

Format: 10 x 23 (all series: 50 x 23)
Broadcaster: CNA

This multi-award-winning show returns, exploring some of the world's most extraordinary luxury spaces, artisans, collectors and chefs. From a maximalist jungle paradise in Thailand to a traditional French beret manufacturer and a rare vinyl collector, we explore the world's finest luxury creations and meet the visionaries behind them.

The Business of Fashion Show

Format: 6 x 24
Broadcaster: Bloomberg TV

The global fashion industry sells more than 100 billion items of clothing a year, but at what cost to our planet? Fashion expert Imran Amed is on a journey to learn how the industry is recalibrating to balance profit with purpose. In this series, meet the people who are forging fashion's future through the re-sale revolution, the metaverse and more.

Good Grief

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: Channel 4

Priest and former popstar, Rev Richard Coles opens up the conversation around bereavement. Setting off on a personal journey, he tests out unconventional activities to tackle grief, from laughter yoga and surfing to indoor skydiving and alpaca therapy. With an uplifting, funny and heart-warming approach, this film re-examines our understanding of grief.

Sing to Remember: Defying Dementia

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

There is no cure for dementia, but science is proving that choral singing may be able to slow it down. British conductor, Jason Lai, forms a choir with nine individuals living with dementia, leading rehearsals for a special Christmas concert alongside a series of scientific assessments to understand the effects of singing on the brain and dementia.

On the Pulse

Format: 8 x 23
Broadcaster: CNA

With wellness and preventive health so closely linked to lifestyle, understanding our health choices is vitally important. This accessible series investigates common health issues from male infertility and gut health to fitness and dementia, revealing innovative new treatments and examining the science behind our long-held beliefs on health.

The New Hire

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

How can we improve workplaces to make them truly inclusive of people with disabilities? Host Grace Lee-Khoo, founder of an inclusive theatre company in Singapore, follows four remarkable individuals with disabilities, exploring how they can overcome both their own anxieties and the real-world obstacles that stand between them and their dream jobs.

Your 100 Year Life

Format: 1 x 56 (4K)

All around the world people are living longer than ever before. But can we afford it? In our wealthiest nations, old age homelessness is on the rise and so is the number of pensioners using food banks. With a unique mix of animation, expert interviews and personal stories from across the globe, Your 100 Year Life uncovers the root of this problem and what we can do to solve it.

The Truth About Stem Cells

Format: 1 x 60 / 1 x 90 (4K)

Discover the future of medicine in this jaw-dropping film which uncovers the little known truth about stem cell therapy. Through state-of-the-art CGI and insights from medical experts we discover a paradigm shift in health, uncovering how stem cell therapy is revolutionising the treatment of pain, chronic illness, sexual health and more.

Ageless Gardens, Series 4

Format: 5 x 22 (all series: 20 x 22)
Broadcaster: Vision TV

Returning by popular demand for a fourth series, this show is a visual celebration of gardens and explores the practical, aesthetic, health and psychological benefits of gardening as we age. From healing plants to therapeutic gardens and outdoor spaces that grow communities, this series will demonstrate the importance of connecting with nature.

Healing Gardens

Format: 10 x 22 (4K)
Broadcaster: Vision TV

This beautiful series explores the healing capabilities of nature, gardening and unique green spaces with their transformative powers that provide health benefits to a diverse population. Each episode delves not only into the splendour of the gardens but also into the personal stories of healing and transformation behind the people who tend to them.

Music Voyager

Format: 60 x 26 (HD & 4K)
Broadcaster: PBS

This travel series with a twist journeys around the globe to uncover the magic and mystery of music. From the US to Israel, Jamaica to Japan, Morocco to India, with local creatives as our guides we go off-the-beaten-track and get a backstage pass to the local hot spots. Along the way, we meet cutting-edge musicians, seek out street festivals, sample local cuisine and learn how a blend of music, culture and identity creates the perfect harmony.

Martin Compston's Scottish Fling

Format: 6 x 25
Broadcaster: BBC

Line of Duty actor, Martin Compston, is back in his homeland to discover the most exciting experiences Scotland has to offer. With his best friend, Phil, the boys travel from stunning wild landscapes to thriving cities. Packed with hilarious moments and unexpected encounters, the trip also taps into universal themes of identity, friendship and social good.

Infernal Paradise

Format: 5 x 47 (4K)
Broadcaster: Arte, SRF, Servus TV

This series visits five different island nations which were once penal colonies; destinations only for convicts and slaves. Discover how the history of incarceration on each island came to shape its present day, and how the vibrant local cultures, landscapes and nature of these paradise islands have managed to thrive despite their dark pasts.

No Luggage, Series 3 & 4

Format: 39 x 30 (all series: 208 x 29)
Broadcaster: BTV / DIEMA

Strap in for the ultimate travel experience. These two new series of Europe's most popular travel series bring audiences up close and personal with the world's most adventurous and unique destinations, such as the lotus gardens of Cambodia, Serbia's prehistoric past, a Ugandan Gorilla reserve and the Mayan walled city of Tulum in Mexico.

Trail Towns: Down Under

Format: 18 x 30
Broadcaster: SBS

Jump on for the ride of a lifetime as we explore the cycle trails, mountain bike parks, natural beauty and cuisine that Australia and New Zealand have to offer. Our hosts, Vandy and Deetz, cycle through quaint towns and bustling cities in this family-friendly show which will inspire you to get off the sofa and into the saddle!

The Buddha Code

Format: 8 x 52
Broadcaster: Thai PBS

Through this enlightening series we explore the ancient practice of Buddhism across the world in the modern day. From elusive relics in the deserts of Central Asia, to temple kitchens in South Korea, many cultures have adapted Buddhist teachings to local customs. Past and present, we see how these disparate cultures are linked by their shared faith.

Brilliant Corners, Series 3

Format: 6 x 52 (all series: 11 x 52)
Broadcaster: World Surf League

Brilliant Corners is an adventure activism series about surfing and surf communities in some of the most exciting and unusual locations on the planet; from Algeria to India and Papua New Guinea. This show is a celebration of life, revealing positives in often misrepresented places and discussing critical issues of sustainability and responsible tourism.

Estonia from Above

Format: 1 x 52 (4K)
Broadcaster: ERR

Explore the captivating Baltic nation of Estonia on this breathtaking aerial journey which travels from the enchanting, UNESCO-certified streets of Tallinn’s medieval Old Town to the serene flood lands of Soomaa, which locals navigate by boat. Across all four seasons, discover Estonia’s best-kept secrets, from high-tech architecture to charming coastal resorts, and from traditional forest saunas to staggeringly pristine natural landscapes.

Oman from Above

Format: 1 x 52 (4K)

Oman is the oldest independent state in the Arab world and has a rich and unique history. Discover the beauty and culture of this fascinating country with this stunning aerial journey that visits over 50 sites, from deserts to dramatic rocky mountains, quiet bays overseen by ancient forts to stunning luxurious resorts dotted along the country’s 3,000 kilometres of coastline.

Japanese Islands from Above

Format: 1 x 52 (4K)

According to myth, the beginning of the known world came with the creation of Japan’s many islands. Now, for the first time, visit these stunning locations on an aerial tour. From those on which the first Christian missionaries sheltered, to isles made up of crisscrossing bridges, Japanese Islands from Above reveals the unique ways of life that make these islands the bedrock of Japan’s identity.

Finland from Above

Format: 1 x 52 (4K)

Discover the land of a thousand lakes on this stunning aerial journey. From the city lights of Helsinki to the snowy peaks of Lapland, discover Finland’s diverse landscape of wild forests, northern swamps and snowy expanses. Ride on a husky sleigh, marvel at the Northern lights and visit Rovaniemi, the magical village of Santa Claus.

Australia from Above

Format: 5 x 52 (4K)

This landmark aerial series explores the breathtaking Australian landscape, featuring episodes on the Great Barrier Reef, the Outback, New South Wales and the island state of Tasmania - home to lakes, waterfalls, mountains and rainforests. Shot in stunning 4K, discover Australia as you’ve never seen before, from indigenous dance ceremonies to tourists swimming with whales.

Oman from Above

Colors of the Islands:
Capturing the Caribbean

Format: 4 x 27 (4K)

Discover the Caribbean islands as you’ve never seen them before, through the lenses of local photographers. These trailblazing artists strive to capture iconic images of their home islands which embrace their cultural identity. Picture pink sand beaches and the crystal blue waters of Barbados and the Bahamas, offering a breathtaking experience of the Caribbean in stunning 4K.

Asian Art Stories

Format: 6 x 22
Broadcaster: RNZ

How can the arts help spark more inclusive conversations that build bridges of understanding? Weaving together personal stories and artistic practices with different perspectives, this series profiles a range of diverse artists from Asian backgrounds who embrace their cultural identity through music, theatre, dance, art and design.

The Man Who Painted Ireland

Format: 1 x 50
Broadcaster: RTÉ

Narrated by Pierce Brosnan, this revelatory, biographical film tells the story of Ireland’s greatest painter, Jack B. Yeats, brother to immortal poet, William. Never-before-told on screen, discover Jack’s life through emotive storytelling and breathtaking cinematography of the wild Irish landscapes that greatly inspired him.

A League of Extraordinary Makers

Format: 5 x 48
Broadcaster: CNA

Dive into the minds of extraordinary ‘Makers’ and the things they create, from traditional inventors to modern-day hackers. From fashion that feels our heartbeats to 3D-printed prosthetics, we chart the rise of the international Maker movement. Featuring exclusive interviews with Maker Faire founder, Dale Dougherty and popular YouTube Maker, Jimmy DiResta.

Slumbering Concrete:
Architecture & Ideas

Format: 4 x 50
Broadcaster: HRT

Discover the stories behind Eastern Europe’s striking and unique modernist architecture. The experimental policies and utopian goals of these formerly socialist states found their expression in grand architectural projects. But what can we learn from this bygone era of ambitious design?

F*ck Berlin

Format: 4 x 30
Broadcaster: RBB

This taboo-busting series throws open the doors of Berlin’s infamously progressive sex scene where everything is possible, nothing is off limits, and no one is judged; just so long as the other person – or people – are into it. Follow nine women as they navigate life and love while exploring polyamory, kink, gender, religion, and so much more. Along the way, they will realise the radical power of accepting themselves and their desires.

In Development & Production

The King & The Composer

Format: 1 x 60 / 1 x 90
Broadcaster: BBC

King Charles III explores his love for classical music and the work of world-renowned composer Sir Hubert Parry in this exclusive documentary.

Parry's hymns include the magnificent Jerusalem and the powerful I Was Glad which have both been played for centuries at royal weddings, funerals and coronations. Parry's music will feature at the upcoming coronation of King Charles III in May 2023.

The World's Most Remote Hotels

Format: 10 x 30 (4K)
Producer: Pronto Prod

In this enchanting series, go behind-the-scenes of the world's most remote hotels. Far from the comforts of modern civilization, luxury takes on a new meaning as guests are encouraged to sleep under the stars and respect the ways of the wild. Discover how these hotels embrace the elements and the nature surrounding them, from a treehouse in Lapland and an island paradise in Canada, to a cave hotel in Turkey and a desert ranch in Patagonia.

The Lion's Last Roar

Format: 2 x 46 (4K)
Producer: Talesmith & Zee

African lions are highly endangered, and could be totally extinct by 2050. From acclaimed wildlife producers Talesmith, this blue-chip series reveals how we can best save this iconic species. The series explores the controversial debate on trophy hunting, as well as the developing relationship between humans and lions. Featuring unprecedented access and comparisons between the successful conservation of Asiatic lions in India with similar efforts in Zimbabwe.

International

new titles

TVF International

375 City Road London EC1V 1NB

☎ +44 (0)20 7837 3000

✉ int@tvf.co.uk

🐦 @tvfint

📷 @tvfindernational

tvfindernational.com