

International

new titles

contents

HISTORY	2
SCIENCE	6
WILDLIFE	8
BUSINESS & TECHNOLOGY	10
WORLD AFFAIRS	11
TRUE CRIME	14
EXTRAORDINARY STORIES	14
HEALTH	15
INSIDE ACCESS	16
FACTUAL ENTERTAINMENT	17
PEOPLE & CULTURES	18
TRAVEL	21
ARTS	24
LIFESTYLE	21
FOOD	26
IN DEVELOPMENT & PRODUCTION	29

The Faces of History

Format: 6 x 40
Broadcaster: NPO MAX

Some legacies stand the test of time: Cleopatra, Joan of Arc, Shakespeare, Marco Polo, St. Nicholas, Mary Magdalene. But do we really know them? What did they look like? This series delves into the personal stories of these iconic figures. Based on new and surprising findings from around the world, renowned 3D artist Mao Lin Liao builds an astonishing life-like recreation of each figure, bringing history to life right before our eyes.

Asia's Ancient Civilizations, Series 2

Format: 4 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Today, South Korean and Japanese pop culture are global forces. Yet this hypermodernity exists alongside deeply traditional societies. Historian Peter Lee traces the ancient roots of these cultures, uncovering the rise and fall of four kingdoms: Japan's Ainu People, Tokugawa (Edo) Shogunate, and Ryuku Kingdom, and Korea's Joseon Dynasty.

Lost Treasure Tombs of the Ancient Maya

Format: 2 x 47 / 1 x 120 / 1 x 90
Broadcaster: Channel 4, Discovery Science, France TV

Follow leading archaeologists as they search for clues to how the Maya lived and what happened to them. Using stunning CGI imagery and unique access to excavations we learn about hidden treasures inside Maya tombs and how their rulers reinvented their society after the collapse.

Untold Arctic Wars

Format: 6 x 52 (4K)
Broadcaster: YLE, SVT, NRK, DR

Follow divers and archaeologists as they locate sunken German aircraft wrecks, investigate hidden mass graves and track down secret coastal fortresses. Through unseen colourised archive footage, high-end CGI and animated maps, archaeologists, researchers and historians unearth the events that took place in the icy Nordic battlefields.

Digging for Britain, Series 9

Format: 6 x 60 (all series: 35 x 60)
Broadcaster: BBC

From Neolithic hand axes to World War II fighter planes, elaborate Roman keys to Saxon swords, the rich history of the UK is revealed and examined like never before. Professor Alice Roberts is joined by a team of experts who will dig deeper to understand the story behind the finds and provide insight and revelation spanning 10,000 years of British history.

DunHuang: Ancient Frontier Fortress

Format: 5 x 27 (4K), 2 x 52 (4K, on request)
Broadcaster: Tencent

100 years ago, a chance discovery of the Mogao Caves - now a UNESCO heritage site - revealed the dramatic history of the Silk Road frontier town

DunHuang. For the first time ever, its incredible story of ancient generals, scheming warlords, pious monks, and Empress Wu Zetian is brought to life through dramatic recreations, new archeological discoveries and expert's insights into the fascinating history of the region.

Ancient Splendours of Rome

Format: 2 x 50
Broadcaster: EBS

Discover Ancient Rome's most awe-inspiring accomplishments thanks to high-end CGI and jaw-dropping dramatic reconstructions. This documentary event series brings the unique achievements of the Roman Civilisation roaring back to life. Episode one visits the infamous Colosseum, where Emperors ruled and Gladiators fought, while episode two reveals the mysterious of Pompeii which continue to confound historians to this day.

The First World

Format: 1 x 52

This award-winning documentary examines the legacy of leading philosophers Pythagoras and Plato, and their impact on the modern world today. Their influence reaches far and wide, having an effect on our thoughts, buildings and hierarchies. Filmed across North America and Europe, this documentary revisits key locations in the lives and work of these two legendary figures.

Inferno: Letters from Auschwitz

Format: 1 x 50
Broadcaster: NHK

Mysterious letters were discovered at Auschwitz following World War II. The heavily-weathered letters were hitherto illegible, but now digital technology is shedding light on their contents. These newly unearthed first-hand accounts offer first person testimonies of the horrors of Auschwitz, and reveal how such cruelty was systemized.

100 Years: China's Communist Century

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

As the Chinese communist party celebrates its 100th anniversary, examine the key characters and eras in its turbulent history; the 1920s, the Civil War, the Great Leap Forward and Deng Xiaoping's reforms. Did 15 million die in the Great Famine? And how does the Cultural Revolution shape China today?

The Great Wall of China: The Making of a Nation

Format: 1 x 52 / 1 x 67 (4K)
Broadcaster: Channel 5

This breathtaking aerial journey, uncovers 3000 years of history. We discover who built this wall, visit the spot which has welcomed 500 heads of state, including the Queen of England and end at the impressive Jiayuguan Fortress, once the intimidating welcome to all new arrivals entering China from the West.

Ancient Splendours of Rome

Carbon:
The Unauthorised Biography

Format: 1 x 89 / 1 x 55
Broadcaster: ABC, CBC, Arte / ZDF

This definitive story of life's core element promises to transform how we think of Carbon, from maligned destroyer towards a powerful enabler. Carbon is present in nature, industry, culture, war and love. Carbon's life story is an epic journey from the death of a star to the birth of the modern world, towards an understanding of today's most vital issues: energy, climate and survival. Featuring expert talking heads including Neil deGrasse Tyson.

Rain: The Untold Story

Format: 3 x 60
Broadcaster: BBC, TG4, LIC

Life on Earth would not be possible without rain. Rain, or the lack of it has shaped and destroyed civilizations since antiquity, and now climate change is altering the patterns of rainfall with deadly effect. In this three-part series we examine the science of rain, our evolving cultural relationship with rain and solutions to the global water crisis.

Eco-Eye: Sustainable Solutions

Format: Series 20: 9 x 25 (all series: 48 x 25)
Broadcaster: RTE

This acclaimed, long running series investigates the critical environmental issues affecting our world as well as the impact our surroundings have on our physical and mental wellbeing. In the latest series we explore climate friendly farming, updating water infrastructures and how to decarbonise heating our homes without leaving many in the cold.

Climate For Change

Format: 4 x 48 / 2 x 48 (4K)
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Is it possible to re-purpose waste and create a real 'Circular Economy'? And how can we harness green energy to power our future? This global series investigates groundbreaking climate-saving projects, from turning plastic into fuel and wasteless lab-grown meat, to the latest international innovations in solar, wind, biofuels and natural gas.

T-Rex: An Evolutionary Journey

Format: 1 x 52 (4K)
Broadcaster: NHK

The Tyrannosaurus Rex is known as the king of all dinosaurs. Fierce competition forced them to evolve into the massive carnivorous terrors that we know today. Based on the latest scientific insights from global experts, this fascinating program traces the T-Rex's evolutionary path through the epic story of two T-Rex brothers in brilliant 4K CGI animation.

Climate For Change

Saving the Wild

Format: 2 x 60 (4K)

Shining a light on the realities of frontline conservation efforts, this series reveals the battle to save Africa's last wild animals. Come face to face with big cats and join a re-wilding operation releasing once captive cheetahs and lions. Follow the challenge of relocating 53 African elephants across two borders into a new reserve, and learn more about the threats faced by the world's largest land animal.

Extraordinary Ecosystems

Format: 1 x 52 (4K)

Broadcaster: SVT

Discover the brilliant world of biodiversity in this natural history documentary. From the scorching sand dunes of Namibia to the bitter waters of the Baltic Sea, this film visits the most extraordinary ecosystems and the creatures that inhabit them. We also learn how human activity has forced species into extinction and reflect on the importance of preserving diverse environments.

Eco-Heroines: The Pangolin

Format: 1 x 52 (all series: 8 x 52, 4K)

Broadcaster: Ushuaia TV

One of the last surviving mammals of prehistoric times, the pangolin is virtually extinct across the world. But in Africa and Asia, these creatures are increasingly victims of illegal wildlife crime, hunted for their meat and their scales. In the Congo Basin, follow a young conservationist who is determined to see a different future for the pangolin.

Animal Instincts

Format: Series 1: 8 x 52 (4K), Series 2: 3 x 52

Broadcaster: NHK

Discover eleven different species from across the globe who rely on instinct alone for survival. Featuring three new episodes telling the story of the fearsome Mandrill Monkey, the speedy Cheetahs of the Serengeti, and the beguiling creatures of Japan's Noto Peninsula, which is home to a giant blanket octopus and deep sea-oarfish.

Malaysia's Last Tigers

Format: 1 x 60

In the ancient rainforest of Malaysia lives the elusive Malaysian Tiger. Once the monarch of this kingdom, the Malaysian Tiger has now come under significant threat from poachers. In an effort to understand rainforest life and save the species, thousands of camera traps have been placed throughout the forest, revealing fascinating and never before seen behaviours in the animal kingdom.

Reef Stories

Format: 4 x 50 (4K)

Coral reefs are hotspots of diversity that support 25% of all marine life. From Recife in Brazil to the Batangas Sea in the Philippines, this 4K series reveals the extraordinarily varied creatures that inhabit these underwater kingdoms. As these reefs face extinction from rising global temperatures and water acidification, how are animals adapting and what can man do to help reverse this destruction?

China Wild

Format: 5 x 50 (now in 4K)

Broadcaster: CCTV 9

China has one of the world's most diverse ecosystems, with everything from rare Manchurian Tigers and Amur leopards, to Tibetan foxes to 'Demoiselle' cranes. We reveal never-before-seen behaviours, rare animals, and conservation in action across China's main habitats: from grasslands and forests to megacities and oceans.

Wild City

Format: 6 x 48 (now in 4K)

Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

David Attenborough narrates four episodes of this exploration of Singapore's unique wildlife habitats, from the overlooked urban interior to the islands and forests teeming with otter families, crocodiles and pangolins. Wildlife expert Nick Baker also covers insects and small animals, and Patrick Aryee explores the lively river habitats.

Why It Matters: Future Tech

Format: 5 x 23 (all series: 19 x 23 & 4 x 48)
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

What is the Metaverse? How can we live past 100? And what can we learn from the natural world around us? Why it Matters returns to examine the technologies and trends today that will impact how we live tomorrow. From living, working and playing in a virtual world, to the latest developments in touchless tech and biomimicry innovations.

Peer to Peer, Series 6 & 7

Format: 44 x 24 (all series: 118 x 24 and 6 x 48)
Broadcaster: Bloomberg TV

Renowned financier and philanthropist David Rubenstein meets with global leaders to uncover their stories and their path to success. Each episode features an interview with one business leader or politician, including the insights of public figures such as McDonald's CEO Chris Kempczinski, Alphabet CFO Ruth Porat, and TikTok CEO Shouzi Chew.

Video Game Wars: Japan

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

In the 80's and 90's Japan dominated global video games, with favourites from Pac Man to Mario and Sonic. However, stiff competition from eSports, mobile gaming, Korea and China re-shaped gaming. We chart the incredible rise, fall and resurgence of Japan's gaming industry, with Nintendo's Switch and Animal Crossing bringing new hope.

Coded World

Format: 4 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Algorithms are everywhere and affect everything we do. Journalist Anjan Sundaram travels the globe to explore this technological revolution, and to break down algorithms' real life effects. He explores their power to influence what we choose, affect our personal liberties and even disrupt nations. How will AI shape the future of our coded world?

The New Silk Road: Silk Road 2.0

Format: 3 x 48 (all series: 25 x 48)
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

This award-winning series returns to investigate how China's Belt & Road Initiative is changing post-pandemic, in the digital, health and green spheres. Narrator Anthony Morse examines everything from China's digital expansion across Asia through Huawei and its vaccine diplomacy across Africa, to its environmental efforts.

Afghanistan: The War Comes Home

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

After withdrawing from Afghanistan, the 800,000 Americans who served in the war have been left unemployed. Why are these veterans joining militias and becoming what the FBI describes as "the biggest threat facing the US today?" Through exclusive interviews, we learn how America's radicalised veterans are bringing the war back to domestic soil.

One Way: Hong Kong Exodus

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

In Hong Kong today, everyone knows someone who's leaving; the UK government estimates some 150,000 migrated through the BN(O) visa scheme in 2021 alone, with 5 million people eligible. We follow the one-way journey of several families as they uproot their lives, struggle with the decision, and redefine themselves in new, unfamiliar places.

Did Covid Leak from a Lab?

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: Channel 4

This investigative documentary is an impartial look at different theories of Covid-19's origins in an attempt to discover whether it really started in a market in Wuhan or if the virus leaked from a research lab. We reveal how Covid's origin has been manipulated; uncovering lies and deceptions perpetrated by the Chinese government and major organisations.

Undercover Asia, Series 9

Format: 10 x 48 (all series: 53 x 48)
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

This award-winning investigative series returns to uncover the hard truths behind topical issues in Asia and beyond. Reporters on the ground gain exclusive access to everything from the surge in anti-Asian racism in the UK, China's disturbing 'pet economy', China's plastic surgery boom, the Philippines' unwanted baby boom, India's ongoing education crisis, Singapore's adult-only Karaoke Bar addiction, and much more.

Asian Hate in the United Kingdom

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

COVID-19 triggered waves of attacks on Asians around the world, with the UK recording a three-fold rise in anti-Asian hate crimes. Now, reporter Wei Du returns to Britain to find out how people like her are still living in fear, uncovering the history of racism towards Asians in the UK, and how the community is determined to fight back.

India's Education Crisis

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

When the pandemic hit in 2020, schools across the world were forced to switch to remote teaching, but India has experienced one of the longest closures of all, fuelling an already unprecedented education crisis. As results plummet, digital divides widen, and students drop out, we ask, what is the cost to India's young generation?

Unwanted Baby Boom: The Philippines' Teenage Mothers

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

In the Philippines, birth control access has been limited during the pandemic, resulting in an explosion of unwanted pregnancies. Many of these unwilling mothers are just teenagers. We uncover the world of backstreet abortionists and illegal abortion medicine traders capitalising on this crisis.

Singapore's KTV: Impossible to Quit?

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Karaoke (KTV) has been banned for over two years in Singapore. Yet KTV bars are not only still open – they are flourishing. We go undercover to the nation's clandestine KTV bar industry, meeting the clients and hostesses at its heart. Discover, first hand, how they continue to flourish underground and evade detection.

Facing Beauty: China's Plastic Surgery Addiction

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Demand for dramatic plastic surgery in China has grown drastically over the past ten years. With exclusive access, we explore the motivations and factors behind this growth among the nation's young population, and discover an addiction to the most strange and extreme of cosmetic procedures.

China's Pet Economy

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Pet ownership is increasingly popular for middle-class Chinese citizens. But there's a dark side of this pet economy, with some animals bought for as little as US$1.50 shipped without food or water for days on end. Animal rights activists uncover a disturbing community of animal abusers who film themselves torturing pets, sometimes for payment.

Catching a Serial Killer: Death & Injustice in Korea

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

This is the incredible story of the South Korea’s most infamous cold case involving one of the country’s first known serial killers. Ten victims were found over four years, leading to the largest manhunt the country has ever seen. Catching A Serial Killer recaps the twists and turns of the police investigation, the vital evidence that was overlooked and the emotional trauma felt in a town where locals were scared to leave their homes.

Ximei: Fighting China’s Aids Scandal

Format: 1 x 98 / 1 x 52

This award-winning film, executive produced by internationally renowned artist Ai Weiwei, tells the story of Ximei, a Chinese woman fighting for fellow AIDS patients who became infected with HIV during China’s “Black Blood Economy” when the government encouraged millions of farmers to sell their blood. Ximei’s courageous actions transform the tragedy of Henan’s HIV-infected outcasts into lives of hope.

We Don’t Play Dolly

Format: 2 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

This is the extraordinary story of how an obscure team from Karnataka rocketed to India’s first-ever Blind Cricket National finals for women, led by inspirational coach Shika Shetty. Despite losing to champions Odisha, two years later, they have a chance to avenge the defeat...Their message to the world: ‘We play real cricket, we don’t play dolly!’

My Perfect Family

Format: 8 x 29 (all series: 37 x 29)
Broadcaster: TVNZ

In this heart-warming and inspiring series, My Perfect Family celebrates the fantastic parents around the world who raise their children with a creative, pragmatic and positive attitude. Discover how children living with mental and physical disabilities live their lives to the fullest with the help of their incredible families.

Being Me

Format: 12 x 29 (all series: 48 x 29)
Broadcaster: TVNZ

Being Me shows a side of disability rarely covered in the media: fun-loving people living fulfilling and dynamic lives. Despite serious obstacles, these individuals have risen to take on the world and conquer their dreams with a bold heart. Challenge your perceptions in this positive and uplifting series by seeing the world through another’s eyes.

The Menopause Brain Drain

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: Channel 4

Building on the incredible impact of Sex, Myths and the Menopause, this documentary investigates the numbers of women who quit, miss promotions or are sacked due to a lack of support for and understanding of the menopause at work. The film also reveals shocking new scientific research around the ‘brain fog’ reported by 60% of menopausal woman, and how testosterone, women’s biggest hormone, affects mental clarity, energy and libido.

Emergency Helicopter Medics, Series 4 & 5

Format: Series 4: 10 x 47, Series 5: 10 x 47
Broadcaster: More4

Emergency Helicopter Medics is an adrenaline fuelled obdoc series that follows extraordinary teams of flying doctors who are making medical history. Using high tech lifesaving procedures, new technologies and advanced field surgery, patients who would often die before they reach hospital are now being saved.

Super Tunnel

Format: 9 x 60
Broadcaster: BBC

With exclusive access this series follows a team of more than ten thousand engineers and construction workers as they build a brand new subterranean railway under London. Costing over $25 billion and taking ten years to build, it's the biggest engineering project in Europe. With opening scheduled for 2022 this is the definitive story of this engineering feat.

Extreme Road Rescue

Format: S1-6: 21 x 45, S7: 30 x 26
Broadcaster: Channel 5

Join the intrepid men and women who come to the rescue when extreme weather hits the UK. In this high-octane series, we ride shotgun with a returning cast of road rescue specialists. With 360 degree access to all agencies working on the roads, our cameras are first at crashes and breakdowns. Discover the work of paramedics, snowplough drivers, heavy rescue technicians and highways traffic patrols as they deal with serious accidents and dangerous breakdowns.

Down for Love

Format: 3 x 45
Broadcaster: TVNZ

This is a dating show with a difference. Six people living with Down syndrome are on a quest to find love as they embark on a series of dates - for some of them their first ever - and gather advice from family, friends, experts and other couples along the way. As they take tentative steps toward love, their honesty and openness might just be a lesson for us all.

To the Rescue

Format: 22 x 21
Broadcaster: The CW Network

To the Rescue follows uplifting stories of love and redemption featuring rescue dogs from around the world. Each episode follows cases that intertwine the work of animal rescue organizations, animal shelters, transporters, behaviorists and foster families to reveal what it really takes to help the most at-risk dogs find their forever families.

Monster Carp, Series 6 & 7

Format: Series 6: 1 x 77 & 3 x 46, Series 7: 1 x 77 & 3 x 46
Broadcaster: ITV

With plenty of laughs along the way the boys travel across France, Spain, Italy and Hungary visiting stunning freshwater lakes and catching the biggest King Carp to date in locations where former world record breaking monster fish have been reeled in. Come along for the ride on this ultimate angling adventure now celebrating its seventh series!

Santa School

Format: 1 x 45
Broadcaster: Channel 5

Welcome to the Northern Lights Santa Academy where people from around the world learn everything required to make the perfect Santa Claus. This is a heart-warming festive film that delves into the wonder of Christmas, the people that keep the magic alive and pass it on for generations and how, in turn, these people are given their own sense of happiness.

Borderlands

Format: 4 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

This series takes a powerful and intimate look at how marginalised people, living on the borderlines between two countries, struggle to survive and thrive. From Kinmen Island, the last place China and Taiwan fought, to the Laotian town of Golden Boten, to the disputed Tawi-Tawi maritime region, and the complex Bangladeshi-Indian border.

Never Out of Reach

Format: 4 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

How can children in the world's most remote locations still receive an education? This inspiring series follows the daily struggles of four uniquely isolated schools in Pakistan, China, India and Thailand. We meet the schools' incredible founders, and the teachers and volunteers working to ensure the children are never out of reach.

Deciphering India

Format: 4 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Award-winning journalist Anjan Sundaram returns to India to find a nation in flux, where issues like religion, caste, identity and even food have become battlegrounds. He investigates everything from spiritual gurus and the politicisation of the sacred cow, to the entrenched patriarchy reinforcing gender divides and threatening women's lives.

Deciphering South Korea

Format: 4 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

From BTS to 'Parasite', K-Culture is everywhere. But what's going on in the country itself, and how has it become such a global force? Korean journalist Joi Lee dives deep into everything from the realities behind the Korean Wave, and the Korean Male in a nation at war, to the struggling millennial generation and the incredible tech shaping the country.

Deciphering Indonesia

Format: 4 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

TV host Cheryl Marella travels across the world's fourth most-populated nation to explore hot-button issues affecting her country today. From testing the true extent of Indonesia's religious tolerance and the way its geological 'ring of fire' affects people's lives, to its transformation into a digital nation and the diversity of Indonesian identity.

Deciphering The Philippines

Format: 4 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Filipino journalist Atom Araullo has reported from the most extreme corners of the Philippines. This time, he finds a nation going through incredible change. From the country's extreme gun culture and the women fighting against Duterte's misogyny, to the crossroads faced by Catholicism and the way land shapes Filipino identity.

Magnificent Megacities

Format: 5 x 52 (now in 4K)
Broadcaster: ARTE

This series features five of the most fascinating megacities in our globalized world, from Morocco to Malaysia. Each city represents a symbiosis of old and new, where the tradition of the souq and the mosque converges with the contemporary world of skyscrapers and the varied lives of the people inhabiting these modern metropolises.

Secret China

Format: 6 x 50 (now in 4K)
Broadcaster: CICC

China is an industrial giant and urban powerhouse, but beyond the familiar images of skyscrapers and bustling crowds, there's a different China. We meet extraordinary people, from the farmers clinging to remote mountains to those who are training hunting eagles. This is a land of extremes where resourceful people have built extraordinary lives against the odds.

Hidden Italy, Series 2

Format: 6 x 30 (all series: 24 x 30)
Broadcaster: Sky Italia

From tranquil rivieras, to aristocratic country retreats, ancient mountain towns to hidden architectural wonders, visit an Italy you never knew existed. Discover lost Renaissance frescos hidden away in beautiful cathedrals, steeped in the rich and often surprising history of a beautiful country. This is the vacanza of a lifetime.

Thailand Fantastic

Format: 4 x 50 (4K)
Broadcaster: Thai PBS

Discover Thailand's stunning natural landscapes and traditional ways of life. From traditional elephant rearing techniques used along the Mekong, to the ancient techniques behind Sakon Nakhon's indigo cloth production, and the interconnections of human and animal life around Songkla Lake, Thailand Fantastic reveals the country's beauty.

Grand Earth

Format: 6 x 44 (now in 4K)
Broadcaster: MediaCorp

Travel across the world to explore the communities thriving in the most incredible places on Earth. Featuring stunning cinematography, we visit the magnificent homes across the world where cultures live in harmony with the marvels that are found in their own backyards. From the farmers who built a city in the caves in Italy to the Nepalese sherpas living at high altitude, these people have made the Earth's natural beauty their home.

No Luggage Series 3

Format: 13 x 29 (all series: 182 x 29)
Broadcaster: BTv

This series brings audiences to the world's most adventurous and hard-to-reach destinations and experiences. New episodes feature walking with gorillas in Uganda, exploring Uplistsikhe Rock City in Georgia, diving in the Maldives and touring Angkor Wat in Cambodia. Get up close and personal with the most far-flung corners of the planet.

The World's Most Amazing Festivals

Format: 12 x 29

Vibrant costumes, music, dancing and cheering crowds – these are the ingredients of The World's Most Amazing Festivals. Travelling as far as Mongolia, Guyana and Finland, this series follows local families as they prepare to celebrate a historic festival. Uncover the colourful traditions unique to each place, and rituals passed down for generations.

Trail Towns, Series 1 & 2

Format: Series 1: 6 x 30, Series 2: 6 x 30
Broadcaster: SBS

This family-friendly travel show is dedicated to cycling and the great outdoors. Come along for the ride on a road trip across Australia and New Zealand. From quaint towns to bustling cities, historic and cultural insights alongside tantalising food and drinks, as well as the best bike trails, this show will inspire you to get off the sofa and into the saddle!

Brilliant Corners, Series 3

Format: 6 x 52 (all series: 11 x 52)
Broadcaster: World Surf League

Brilliant Corners is an adventure activism series about surfing and surf communities in some of the most exciting and unusual locations on the planet; from Algeria to India, Madagascar to Papua New Guinea. This show is a celebration of life, revealing positives in often misrepresented places and discussing critical issues of sustainability and responsible tourism.

Britain From the Air

Format: 8 x 60 (now in 4K)
Broadcaster: Smithsonian Channel

Beautifully filmed from the air, this definitive series examines Britain's rich history and heritage in glorious 4K. From awe-inspiring castles dating back thousands of years to lavish royal palaces and diverse, idyllic landscapes, see Britain as never before. Each episode focuses on a unique aspect of British life, past and present.

Aerial Profiles, Series 3

Format: 6 x 52 / 12 x 26 (4K)

Aerial Profiles takes to the skies for a third season to show how human activity has left its visible mark on our landscape. We travel from the mountains of Belgium and Luxembourg to the beautiful coastlines of Ibiza and the Balearic Islands, from the grand vistas of Wyoming and New England in the USA to the unmistakable topography of Germany whose history has left an indelible mark on the whole continent.

Oman From Above

Format: 1 x 52 (4K)

Oman is the oldest independent state in the Arab world, and has a unique and storied history. Discover the beauty of this fascinating country with this stunning aerial journey that visits over 50 sites, from vast deserts to dramatic rocky mountains, quiet bays overseen by ancient forts to stunning luxury resorts dotted along the country's 3000 kilometres of pristine coastline.

UAE From Above

Format: 1 x 52 (now in 4K)

Famous for its record-breaking skyscrapers and vast island resorts, the United Arab Emirates has a hidden side of diverse landscapes and natural beauty. This aerial tour marvels at the magnificent skylines including the Burj Khalifa, the world's tallest building. Away from the cities we explore the other side to the country, visiting the rolling sand dunes and the Jebel Jais mountain range.

Australia From Above

Format: 4 x 60 (4K)

This landmark aerial series will focus on The Great Barrier Reef, the Outback, Western Australia, and Sydney and New South Wales. Beyond the breathtaking scenery and dramatic landscape, the series will also focus on human activity, whether it's an indigenous dance ceremony, tourists swimming with whales or a camel road train across the desert. Shot in 4K, the series will utilise a state-of-the-art helicopter mounted GSS Cinema Pro Gimbal and high-end inspire drones for harder to access places.

10 Years with Hayao Miyazaki

Format: 4 x 50
Broadcaster: NHK

An exclusive look into the life of anime's living legend, Hayao Miyazaki, whose films – including the Oscar-Winning Spirited Away – captivate viewers around the world. With his latest project arriving in 2023, this intimate series chronicles the legendary filmmaker in a busy but contemplative period working on his two most recent masterpieces, Ponyo on the Cliff by the Sea and The Wind Rises, which he had then planned as his final film.

Quentin Blake: The Drawing of My Life

Format: 1 x 60
Broadcaster: BBC

This is the first documentary dedicated to Sir Quentin Blake, one of the most celebrated artists alive today and who is most recognized for his iconic collaborations with Roald Dahl. The illustrator and author tells the story of his 70 year long career with contributions from the likes of Joanna Lumley.

Prince Charles and the Royal Painters

Format: 1 x 51 / 1 x 71 (Now in 4K)
Broadcaster: ITV

The Prince of Wales reveals an extraordinary treasure trove of royal artwork and traces his family's love of art through the generations. Featuring inside access to the spectacular Royal Estates and artwork from Queen Victoria and the Duke of Edinburgh, we discover the work of royals past and present.

Remarkable Living, Series 4

Format: 10 x 23 (all series: 40 x 23)
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

This award-winning series returns, travelling the globe to uncover the world's best lifestyle experiences and artisans, and meeting the visionaries redefining 'luxury'. From high-end cuisine and fashion to artists and exclusive destinations, Remarkable Living opens our eyes to enchanting new worlds of luxury and artistry.

Visionary Gardeners, Series 1

Format: 5 x 22
Broadcaster: Vision TV

This stunning documentary series filmed across Canada travels from a mountain summit on Vancouver Island, across the wintry prairies, and to the rocky coast of Ontario's Lake Huron. Along the way, we're introduced to the expansive minds of those gardeners who have brought their personal innovations and visions to gardening.

Remarkable Living

Food To Change the World

Format: 4 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Chef Ming Tan discovers the latest food hacks and examines their potential to change the world for the better. He reveals and demystifies trends including healing grief and depression, and managing chronic diseases, through food. From food for the brain and food as medicine, to food to save the planet and food as community.

The Food Chain: From Source To Table

Format: 8 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Food prices are going up across the world, and restaurateur Ming Tan is on a mission to find out why. Travelling back to the source of key ingredients, from French butter and Belgian potatoes to Malaysian pork, he tracks production chains to see how events in different countries and industries affect our food.

Food in our Time

Format: 3 x 48
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Join Michelin-starred chef André Chiang on this premium culinary journey. Cooking is his life's purpose, but he is hungry for more. He embarks across four continents and eight countries, to seek food's deeper meaning and unearth the forces that shape how we eat. Between meeting visionary chef Massimo Bottura and foodchemist Hervé This, he explores everything from the Russian Yakuts' frozen diet, to chefs reinterpreting their heritage in Japan, Peru and Ghana.

Secret Delicious

Format: 6 x 23
Broadcaster: Channel NewsAsia

Popular food blogger Aun Koh tours Asia in search of off-menu items, hidden food gems and secret joints. Aun ventures off the beaten track, from a secret street food club in Mumbai, to a Bangkok fermentation room run by one of Asia's top chefs. Along the way, he wines and dines the chefs that are secretly shaking up food, drink and fine dining.

What's Really In Our Food?

Format: 40 x 23
Broadcaster: Mediaworks

This series uncovers the real science behind the fundamental foods we eat. We debunk the common myths and misunderstandings surrounding nutrition, featuring expert opinions, lab tests on popular products as well as human experiments to find out exactly what health benefits or risks can stem from the food that we eat today.

NOTES

[illegible]

in development & production

Decarbonise

Format: 1 x 52
Broadcaster: SWR, Arte
Producer: Heidefilm

The global superpowers have already missed their carbon emissions targets. Scientists are looking to the next solution: actively removing billions of tonnes of greenhouse gases from our atmosphere. Experts put the methods to the test, assessing their benefits and risks. They offer a positive, forward-thinking perspective on the future, exploring cutting-edge science and its potential to change the world.

Aussie Metal Detectives

Format: 6 x 44
Producer: Intomedia

Treasure hunters Leon and Shayne uncover artefacts along the coastlines of Australia and then investigate how these long lost objects from America, Asia,

Africa and Europe ended up in such remote corners of the country. To solve each mystery, the treasure hunters must become detectives. Shayne and Leon will interview archaeologists, historians, scientists, collectors and auctioneers to unlock the stories, and true value, of their new-found treasures.

Unbelievable Me

Format: 10 x 45
Producer: Barcroft Studios

In each episode of this uplifting and inspirational series we will follow the stories of five unique individuals from across the world living with rare medical conditions, but who are refusing to let their illnesses limit them. Each story will be told with authenticity and integrity, raising awareness of the conditions that each person is living with and celebrating their differences. Barcroft Studios will utilise their press agency to help publicise the series alongside broadcast partners.

Survival of the Fittest

Format: 16 x 45
Producer: RJ Media

This 4K competition-based show and format follows the Adventure Racing World Series, the world's leading wilderness expedition. 30 teams featuring the fittest, bravest and most resilient people on the planet will compete in eight races, each staged in different spectacular countries. Air lifted into the unknown and left to fend for themselves, the teams hike, paddle, ride and sometimes carry each other. Who will survive the ultimate test of endurance?