

International

MIPCOM 2026

Contents

HISTORY	2
WORLD AFFAIRS	6
SCIENCE & ENVIRONMENT	14
HEALTH	20
WILDLIFE	22
ARTS	26
FOOD	28
TRAVEL	30
AERIALS	32
LIFESTYLE	33
FACTUAL ENTERTAINMENT	34
PARANORMAL	36
TRUE CRIME	37
EXTRAORDINARY PEOPLE	38
SPORT	39
KIDS	40

Queen James: Passion, Plots and Power in the Court of Britain's First King

Format: 1 x 58
Broadcaster: BBC

Historian Gareth Russell unravels the explosive story of Britain's first king, nicknamed 'Queen James' for his passionate devotion to a string of male bedfellows. King James I survived kidnappings and the Gunpowder Plot, was patron to Shakespeare and became entangled in a scandalous murder trial that threatened to shake the monarchy to its core. Now, dramatic reconstructions bring his letters to life.

Ireland's Last Witch Trial

Format: 1 x 50
Broadcaster: RTÉ

In 1711, just 20 years after Salem, Ireland had its own witch trial - its most documented. One teenager's accusations of bewitchment and haunting would spark a vicious witch hunt, landing eight women in prison and leading one man to his death. Blending cultural analysis and hot modern takes, uncover why this witch trial was Ireland's last.

The Secrets of the Cocaine Mummies

Format: 1 x 50

In this thrilling investigation, the question is no longer whether the Ancient Egyptians had cocaine, but how? With access to leading scientists and scholars, see how one sensational discovery of cocaine in mummies revealed something far greater and more significant: ancient transatlantic and transpacific trade networks, once thought impossible.

Digging for Britain, Series 13

Format: 6 x 60 (all series: 65 x 60)
Broadcaster: BBC

Alice Roberts returns to uncover more archaeological treasures from the most exciting digs in the UK. In this series, the team excavates cemeteries, bathhouses and unearths the lost estate of England's last Anglo-Saxon king, Harold II. Their finds reveal startling truths about medieval murders, Roman pets, whiskey and a historic Scottish massacre.

Written in Stone

Format: 1 x 54
Broadcaster: RTI Mediaset

800 years on, there is still more to uncover about one of history's most influential saints: St Francis. Hidden within the walls of the Basilica of Assisi lie over 700 devotional graffiti messages from medieval friars, travellers and pilgrims. Studied now for the first time, these carvings reveal a more intimate portrait of the celebrated saint.

Asia's Ancient Civilisations, Series 3

Format: 4 x 47 (all series: 12 x 47)
Broadcaster: CNA

In this award-winning history series, historian Peter Lee returns to uncover the secrets of Asia's ancient sea kingdoms. From Indonesia's mighty maritime Kingdom of Srivijaya to the vibrant and diverse culture of Vietnam's Champa civilisation, the Philippines' powerful Islamic Sultanate of Sulu to the original centre of Buddhism found in Sri Lanka's Anuradhapura Kingdom, we explore the rise and fall of Asia's historic seaside empires.

Windows on the World: 9/11's Forgotten Victims

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

At the top of the North Twin Tower, the famous restaurant Windows on the World was destroyed on 9/11. 25 years on, this is the incredible untold story of the Asian migrants who worked there. Reconstructions and exclusive testimony from the survivors' families reveal the lasting human impact of 9/11.

Turing: The Man Who Invented AI

Format: 1 x 47

Nowadays, AI dominates headlines, seemingly snowballing from nowhere. But where did it come from and who first envisaged it? Alan Turing, known to most as the codebreaker who helped turned the tide of WWII, was the first to see the infinite possibilities of computers. With never-before-seen photographs, documents and a rare first-hand account of Turing himself, meet the man who invented AI.

Inside Unit 731: Japan's Secret Human Experiments

Format: 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Unit 731 was Japan's most secretive WWII programme - a biological warfare unit experimenting on humans. Rare access to the only living unit member, survivors and declassified archives reveals the harm inflicted on Chinese, British and American victims, and the deal with the USA that hid these atrocities.

War at the Gardens

Format: 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

During WWII, British scientists and Japanese scholars, whose nations were at war, secretly collaborated to save Singapore's natural treasures from destruction. From the iconic Botanic Gardens to the national orchid flower, discover how this remarkable, forgotten story of wartime friendship and shared humanity saved a green paradise.

The Railways that Changed the World

Format: 3 x 47
Broadcaster: Channel 4

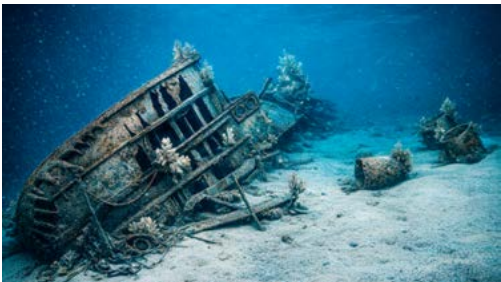

Discover how railways changed more than travel, reshaping the course of history, in this fascinating series narrated by Hugh Bonneville (Downton Abbey). Meet the 'Father of the Railways' George Stephenson and unravel the heroic tales of Isambard Kingdom Brunel via the world's first steam trains, still running today in Yorkshire, Snowdonia and Somerset.

Inventions Down Under

Format: 8 x 52
Broadcaster: Foxtel

Led by a team of expert hosts, each episode of this entertaining series uncovers the stories of four ingenious inventions. From penicillin and Wi-Fi to aeroplane black boxes and the pacemaker, we shine a spotlight on the innovative heroes and thinkers who revolutionised daily life, medicine, communication, war and food, against the odds.

Giant Shipwreck Secrets

Format: 3 x 45
Broadcaster: La7

Beneath the Mediterranean coast lie shipwrecks steeped in mystery. Follow a team of skilled divers as they descend over 60 metres to uncover forgotten tales of WWI and overlooked tragedies from imperial trade routes. Using historical archive, expert analysis and 3D recreations, the team reveals a dramatic past hidden beneath the waves.

Chiang Kai-Shek: Shadow Across the Taiwan Strait

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

As tensions with Beijing reach boiling point, the shadow of Taiwan's notorious former president, Chiang Kai-Shek, looms larger than ever. This award-winning special explores his divisive legacy and reveals how it continues to define both Taiwan's politics and cross-strait relations today.

Inside Iran: War & Revolution

Format: 1 x 67
Broadcaster: ITV

Behind Iran's walls, a hidden story is unfolding. As the January protests are met with a deadly crackdown and America and Israel's war brings further devastation, this is the first film to follow both crises uninterrupted, on the ground. Exclusive footage and testimony from survivors, journalists and grieving families risking everything, reveals the human cost of an uprising the world could barely see, and a war they hardly chose, until now.

Breaking Ranks: Inside Israel's War

Format: 1 x 70
Broadcaster: ITV

A definitive account of Israel's war in Gaza, told by those who fought it. In exclusive on-camera testimony, IDF soldiers speak out publicly for the first time. From indiscriminate bombardment to the use of human shields and the killing of civilians, soldiers recount their orders and actions - testimony so incriminating, it has informed UN reports.

China and the Iran War

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

As the Iran war creates global political and energy crises, how is China navigating the conflict? While accelerating its push for limitless clean energy, China is prioritising nuclear fusion alongside solar, wind and hydropower. It has also favoured diplomacy and cooperation with the United Nations and regional actors, over military action.

The Bondi Terror Attack: One Year On

Format: 1 x 60 / 1 x 90
Broadcaster: SBS

This moving documentary reckons with the worst terror attack in Australia's history. Told by the survivors, families, first responders and everyday heroes who helped stop the violence, this film plunges viewers into the chaos, carnage and emotion of the day, dissecting the wave of antisemitism rising across Australia - and the world.

Nepal: After the Flood

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

The catastrophic Nepal Floods have claimed more than 1,400 lives from over 30 countries. With exclusive access to the Nepali Army and Police, we follow the urgent rescue efforts across the country and meet survivors who have lost everything. We also explore the origins of the disaster and reveal why so many foreign nationals were caught in its path.

Cold Frontier: NATO Prepares for War

Format: 3 x 58
Broadcaster: Yle

With Europe the closest it has been to war since the height of the Cold War, attention turns to its easternmost borders with Russia. Cold Frontier plunges two veterans into NATO's secretive High North training exercise, filmed for public viewing for the first time. Airborne assaults, challenging terrain and high-end weaponry are explained by top military minds to reveal how the world may go to war - and what it takes to defend NATO's northern flank.

Investigates

Format: 21 x 30 + 6 x 60
Broadcaster: Bloomberg

This award-winning series investigates the greatest scandals, crimes and crises of the modern age. Top journalists from all over the world uncover the truth behind some of the most powerful stories, from the dark side of TikTok, to Brazil's biggest bank heist and Italy's hunt for the Nigerian Mafia. Discover the secret kingpin behind Iran's shadow oil empire, bring down India's biggest art thief and meet the Texas preacher who stole in the name of God.

Walk the Line: ICE Nation

Format: 1 x 58 / 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

In the wake of ongoing ICE raids across the US, millions of immigrants are now watching their American Dream turn into a nightmare. The team behind the multi-award-winning Walk the Line returns to investigate the realities of living as an immigrant in America today, including that of Chinese asylum seekers who risked it all to make it into the country.

Fleeing Putin's Poison

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Yle

Poison is an alleged staple of the Kremlin's arsenal against enemies abroad and has triggered some of the most high-profile diplomatic crises of recent years. Follow investigative journalists pursuing suspected poisonings across borders, tracing the evidence to those responsible. Their findings uncover a chilling network of poison, power and impunity.

Trump and the Tech Giants

Format: 1 x 58
Broadcaster: ARD

Under President Trump's administration, business, technology and politics are converging as never before. Tech power brokers including Elon Musk, Peter Thiel, Mark Zuckerberg and Sam Altman have cultivated close ties with the White House. Driven by deeply libertarian ideas, how is this alliance reshaping the political landscape in the US and across the world?

USA: The War on Gender

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Yle

Under President Trump, the power of the Christian right has surged in the US and one of their main targets has been LGBTQ+ rights. Meet queer organisers, lawmakers and religious leaders in Tennessee, the Southern state where drag performances and gender-affirming healthcare are under attack and Pride events take place under armed guard.

The American Abortion War

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Yle

Abortion rights are under threat in the US. Texas, with its firm pro-life policies, is on the frontline of this national debate. As Texan clinics relocate to nearby New Mexico, this film follows anti-abortion activists desperate to stop those crossing state lines for procedures, and the women and doctors who are fighting back.

Why US Allies are De-Risking from America

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

War in Iran, instability in Venezuela and threats against Greenland are all prompting US allies to rethink their ties with Washington, amid a rapidly changing world order. As more and more nations strengthen links with Beijing, what will be the impact for America's influence and its rivalry with China?

Moonshot: Inside China's Future Industries

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Go inside China's bold plan to dominate the next wave of global technology. From AI and robotics to quantum computing and 6G, gain unprecedented access to China's cutting-edge labs and meet the innovators developing the technologies that could shape the future of medicine, warfare, and humanity itself.

The Race for Rare Earths

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Rare earths are essential for everything from smartphones and green tech to missiles, and China controls most of them. As export restrictions loom, the US and other rival powers are racing to build new supply chains before China's dominance tips the global balance. With billions now pouring in, is China at risk of losing its grip on the industry?

India's Love Detectives

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Arranged marriages remain widespread in India as the pressure to find the perfect partner is only mounting. We meet desperate families who have turned to 'Love Auditors' - detectives hired to investigate the hard truths behind claims of love. In high-stakes relationship investigations, they dig up dirt, fight sextortion and uncover secret double lives.

The Asian Guilt Code

Format: 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

For centuries, guilt has been at the heart of Asian culture. In this series, social psychologist Elaine Fernandez visits Japan, China, the Philippines and India to investigate the roots of Asian guilt and how it continues to seep into the social fabric of the East, impacting everything from family hierarchies to criminal syndicates and AI.

Myanmar: The Lost Five Years

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Since the military coup of 1st February 2021, Myanmar has been devastated by a renewed civil war, with over 90,000 people killed. Rare frontline footage and extraordinary testimony from journalists and civilians expose the devastating human impact of this catastrophic event, revealing how both past and present are shaped by struggle, resistance and hope.

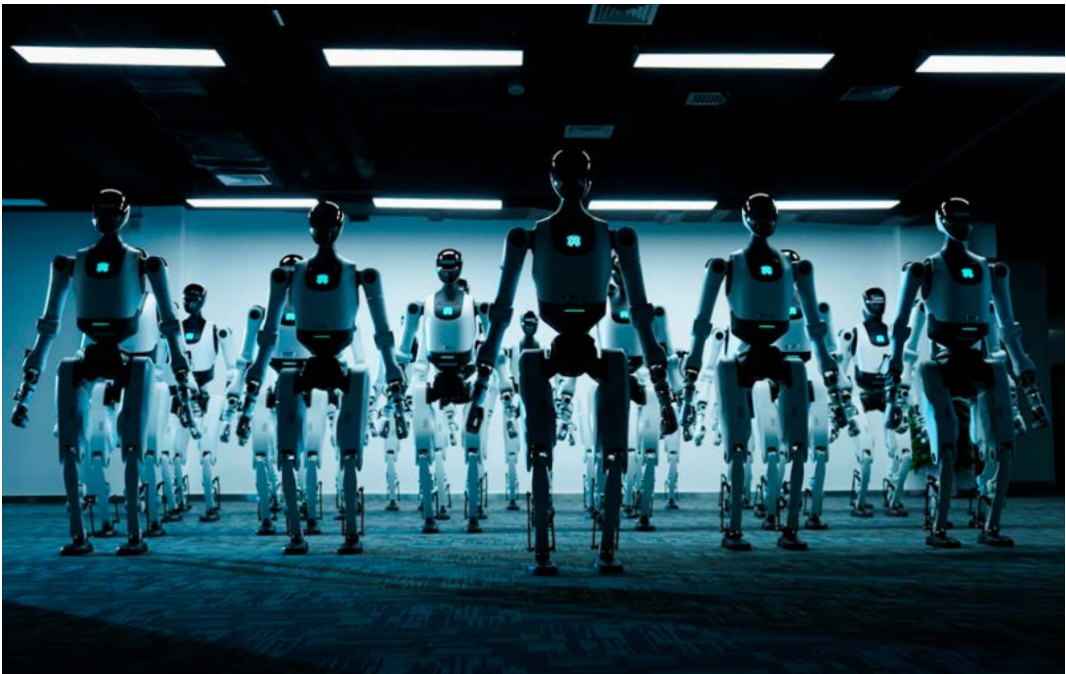

The Gen Z Revolutionaries

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Asia is in one of its most turbulent periods, with governments collapsing across the region. Facing climate anxiety, economic uncertainty and growing distrust in institutions, Gen Z activists in Nepal, Bangladesh, Indonesia and the Philippines are harnessing technology to challenge the status quo and redefine political power in real time.

Moonshot: Inside China's Future Industries

Trade Secret:
The Polar Bear Market

Format: 1 x 100 / 2 x 50
Broadcaster: Arte, SBS, NHK

This award-winning investigation from Executive Producer Adam McKay (Succession) delves into the underground polar bear fur trade. Filmed across nine countries, including Greenland, Canada and Norway, this unflinching exposé raises urgent questions about how we protect our most vulnerable species.

Bones of Contention:
Inside the Dinosaur Skeleton Trade

Format: 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Dinosaur fossil sales are booming, with a Stegosaurus skeleton recently fetching a record USD$40 million. With rare access, dig deep into this murky international trade. We go inside an auction at Sotheby's, meet fossil hunters, dealers and buyers, and join archaeologists repatriating stolen bones.

Raising Expectations:
The Truth About AI

Format: 4 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Tech expert Dr Aaron Maniam is on a mission to uncover the truth behind the promises of AI, as it begins to surprise even its creators. With leading global voices, Aaron explores some of the most important questions of our age: what happens when intelligence no longer belongs to humans alone? Who is left accountable when machines are making the decisions? And will AI save or sabotage the planet?

Trade Secret: The Polar Bear Market

Why Do Bad People Get Promoted?

Format: 1 x 59

Management was once a coveted career step. Now, nobody wants the job and the wrong people keep getting it. Why? And what does this mean for the future of work? From the Michelin factories in France to corporate HQs in Bergen, this documentary follows innovative leaders and researchers asking how to make management desirable, sustainable and meaningful again for a new generation of workers worldwide.

The Spanish Kiss:
Football's Sexism Problem

Format: 1 x 48
Broadcaster: Yle

In 2023, Luis Rubiales, then president of the Spanish Football Federation, forcibly kissed Jenni Hermoso in front of millions after she won the Women's Football World Cup. Discover how this incident sparked Spain's #MeToo movement, with thousands of women coming forward with stories of sexual violence.

Mega fauna:
Lost Giants of the Ice Age

Format: 3 x 45
Broadcaster: TV Cultura

65 million years ago, after the extinction of the dinosaurs, a new generation of beasts emerged: the first giant mammals. From elephant-sized sloths to sabre-toothed tigers, this was the ‘Age of Mega fauna’. But how did these massive creatures live alongside humans, and why did they eventually become extinct? Groundbreaking new research and stunning CGI recreations bring these lost Ice Age giants to life.

Our Quantum Future

Format: 1 x 52 / 1 x 71

A technological revolution 100 years in the making is about to transform society. Quantum computing is moving beyond binary processing to model molecules, human biology and encryption systems in remarkable detail. Featuring Microsoft, Google and Nobel Prize-winning scientists, uncover a world of breakthroughs and brinkmanship, where ethics and ambition collide, and our future hangs in the balance.

The Hadron Collider:
In Search of the Peace Particle

Format: 1 x 59 / 1 x 90
Broadcaster: BBC, S4C, ARTE

Born from the ashes of Hiroshima as a beacon of hope, for 70 years CERN has united researchers from warring nations to explore the universe's fundamental questions. Rare access to the Large Hadron Collider and Nobel Prize winners reveal the vital power of science and its role in peace today.

Dark Skies:
The Truth About Light Pollution

Format: 1 x 44
Broadcaster: CBC

Follow two astronomers as they confront light pollution and join the dark-sky movement to establish Central Canada's first Dark Sky Preserve. Alongside expert scientists, witness the wonders of the cosmos and the ongoing fight to protect our precious night sky for stargazers, now and forever.

Posthuman

Format: 4 x 30
Broadcaster: Bloomberg

Emily Chang unravels the future of being human in an age of innovation. Technology is stretching the boundaries of biology and redefining relationships, reproduction and healthcare. We meet the world's most advanced and intelligent robots, explore the technology behind AI companionship and learn about new discoveries that could transform how we die.

Deep Sea Big Tech

Format: 4 x 52

Ground-breaking technology is transforming how far - and for how long - we can venture underwater, as four extraordinary scientist-aquanauts race to make the ocean habitable to humans. Deep Sea

Big Tech delivers never-before-seen access to Navy researchers, engineers and divers pioneering solutions like deep-sea submersibles, liquid breathing and permanent underwater cities. Long shrouded in the shadows of military intelligence, uncover the quest to transform mankind into an aquatic species by 2050.

Voices of the Universe

Format: 2 x 52

18 Nobel Prize winners come together for the first time to tell the universe's greatest story: how matter gave rise to life, and life to thought. Discover the science straight from the source, from the Big Bang to the formation of the first organic molecules. Combining cutting-edge CGI and exclusive interviews with some of astrophysics' greatest minds, this mini-series tackles humanity's most fundamental questions: what is the universe made of? Where does life come from? How did it all begin?

A Life Without Oil

Format: 4 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

The war in the Middle East has disrupted oil supplies and shone a spotlight on energy alternatives. But is a life without oil possible? From Bangladesh's farming crisis and the Philippines' electric vehicle boom, to India's biogas pivot and Pakistan's solar revolution, we meet scientists and entrepreneurs pioneering renewables and green tech.

Power to the People

Format: 8 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

On the frontlines of climate change, Asia's transition to clean energy is accelerating. We join communities across remote villages and coastal towns navigating this rapid change. From Indonesia's geothermal energy to Taiwan's wind turbines and India's solar boom, we discover how 'going green' is reshaping landscapes, industries and everyday lives.

Curb Your Carbon

Format: 1 x 52
Broadcaster: CBC

Narrated by an A-list Hollywood actor, this film reveals ten simple and effective ways we can all personally fight climate change, from wasting less food to eating less meat. Climate facts are brought to life with fun animations, while our celebrity narrator receives help from racecar drivers, tree-planting moms and a bug-eating rugby team.

The Secret Life of Honeybees

Format: 3 x 50
Broadcaster: EBS

Explore the hidden world of honeybees. From their role in NASA's space mission to their dramatic hive wars, discover the honeybee's emotions, intellect, drive to survive and symbiosis with humans. Guided by leading researchers, this visually stunning journey goes inside the hive, revealing the wonders of one of the planet's most vital species.

Planet Shapers

Format: 10 x 22
Broadcaster: Channel 10

Spanning the waste, energy, food, water and technology sectors, this inspiring series follows innovative people working to create a more sustainable future. From recycling car tyres and plastic packaging, to protecting the Great Barrier Reef, each episode offers inside access to globally relevant stories of progress, problem-solving and hope.

Plastic Tsunami: Voices of the Pacific

Format: 1 x 60
Broadcaster: SBS

In the Pacific Ocean, plastic waste carried by global currents is washing ashore and devastating marine life. Those who have contributed least to this crisis are now facing its consequences. This film follows communities on a mission from the Pacific to the UN, to save their islands from a plastic tsunami.

Chasing Lava

Format: 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Volcanoes have long fascinated humans with their raw and destructive natural power. Meet today's volcano-chasers: adventurers and scientists who risk everything to study living fire. Alongside the latest scientific discoveries and techniques to predict eruptions, they reveal how volcanoes connect people across cultures, continents and time.

Beating the Heat

Format: 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

With heatwaves dominating headlines worldwide, how are some of the worst-affected nations responding to the extreme temperatures? From grassroots solutions to future technologies, we travel across Asia to reveal the people, innovations and policies trying to beat the heat, finally learning how cities and communities can adapt to a hotter future.

The Typhoon Detectives

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Notoriously difficult to predict, super typhoons are becoming more and more deadly. But against all odds, brave 'Typhoon Detectives' are harnessing cutting-edge tools and military technology to dive into the eye of the storm, risking their lives to track these mega storms across Asia and save thousands, if not millions, of lives.

Tides of Time with Ben Fogle

Format: 3 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Narrated by BAFTA-nominated presenter Ben Fogle, this unique series charts the extraordinary king tides, which surge across Asia's coastlines each year. From Bangladesh's Sundarbans wetlands and China's Silver Dragon tidal bore, to South Korea's Getbol mudflats, these dramatic tides are pushing people to the limits of adaptation and survival.

Who's Driving Now? The Future of Transport

Format: 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Self-driving cars will be on many of our roads soon. But how do they actually work? And are they the future of transport? Two car enthusiasts head to China - the world's fastest growing Autonomous Vehicle market - to learn about this pioneering technology and try out both driverless cars and helicopters.

Good Death Innovators: AI Beyond the Grave

Format: 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

As funeral rites vanish across South East Asia, a new market is emerging: grief tech. Pioneers blur the lines between memory and reality to grant families a final conversation through avatars and living funerals. Is this a therapeutic cushion for trauma or is it trapping the bereaved in a digital delusion?

The Typhoon Detectives

Longevity

Format: 4 x 30
Broadcaster: Bloomberg

From the science of ageing to learning how to live longer, longevity is the word on everyone’s lips. In this series, discover the latest medical advancements helping us to answer humanity’s biggest questions about what it takes to live not just a long life, but a healthy one: can Alzheimer’s be prevented? How do we tackle obesity? And can we cure cancer?

The Skinny Jab Revolution

Format: 2 x 52
Broadcaster: RTÉ

This taboo-busting series investigates the rise in popularity of controversial GLP-1 weight loss medications such as Ozempic, Wegovy and Mounjaro. We learn why we still need to address the root cause of obesity alongside these "wonder drugs" and ask the question on everyone’s lips: are these drugs just another quick fix in our toxic diet culture?

Sleep

Format: 1 x 45
Broadcaster: TVNZ

We spend a third of our lives doing it, but how much do we really understand about what happens when we close our eyes? Chef and chronic insomniac Al Brown investigates circadian rhythms, the effects of sleep deprivation and the booming business of sleep aids, testing the science behind the claims to discover what really helps us to sleep better.

The Cancer Killers

Format: 2 x 60
Broadcaster: BBC, SBS

USD$1 billion. That’s the price of taking a life-saving cancer treatment to market. Filmed over 15 years, two determined scientists battle big pharma, bureaucracy and budgets to bring their biotech breakthrough to patients in need. From Australia to the US and UK, is the cure for cancer being blocked not by science, but the medical-industrial complex?

The Battle to Breathe

Format: 1 x 52
Broadcaster: PBS NOVA

Determined families, scientists and patients have turned cystic fibrosis from a childhood death sentence into one of modern medicine’s greatest breakthroughs, culminating in the life-changing 2019 drug Trikafta. But from the US to Egypt, who gets access to this costly miracle? And how do you imagine a future you once thought impossible?

A Comedian's Guide to Happiness

Format: 6 x 43
Broadcaster: Yle

Three female comedians - South Africa's Tumi Morake, India's Aditi Mittal and America's Liza Treyger - travel to Finland to investigate why Finns have been named the world's happiest people for nine years running. Exploring schools, workplaces and the great outdoors, they ask: what does happiness mean? And what is the secret to unlocking a happy life?

The Hand

Format: 1 x 50
Broadcaster: Yle

After eight years living without hands, Arja Ahtaanluoma becomes the first person in Finland to receive a hand transplant. This intimate documentary filmed over four years follows the emotional journey and medical triumphs behind this groundbreaking operation, asking what receiving another human’s body part means for your life and identity.

I’m Not Stupid, I’m Dyslexic

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Around 10% of the world's population is dyslexic, yet the condition is still widely misunderstood. We follow Inch Chua, a singer-songwriter with dyslexia, on a mission to find out how the dyslexic brain works. With the help of medical experts, she discovers how this hidden disability can affect self-confidence and yet, sometimes, become a superpower.

Wild Central America

Format: 2 x 52
Broadcaster: Arte

Stretching from the Yucatan to the Darien and spanning seven countries, Central America is both a jungle bridge linking two oceans and a mysterious, unexplored ecosystem filled with ancient Mayan ruins. This blue-chip wildlife series explores the region as winds and rains set its residents into action: spider monkeys leave home, macaws fight for nests, translucent frogs hatch overnight, whales and turtles patrol both Atlantic and Pacific shores.

Scavengers: Africa's Cleanup Crew

Format: 1 x 52

Often portrayed as vicious and greedy predators, this striking documentary travels the length of Africa to reveal how hyenas, vultures, jackals and other scavenger species actually serve as an essential “cleanup crew”, helping to maintain balance and support the circle of life in the continent. But with food in fierce competition, pulling off the savanna’s smartest hustles takes wit and cunning.

China's Wild Secrets with Stephen Fry

Format: 5 x 45
Broadcaster: bilibili, WDR/ARTE

Stephen Fry narrates this breathtaking journey into China’s wild frontiers, from the enchanting panda’s kingdom to the island rainforests and the roof of the world. Witness never-before-seen behaviours, from tigers hunting deer and Himalayan vultures battling for food, to a panda cub exploring with its teeth and a king cobra defending its nest.

Thailand: A Day in the Wild

Format: 9 x 52
Broadcaster: Thai PBS

This visually stunning series takes us inside Thailand’s natural world. Discover the country’s rich mix of ecosystems, from tropical rainforests and vast rice paddies, to the crystal-clear coastlines. Along the way, meet a variety of playful inhabitants, including monkeys and elephants, as we spend a day in the wilds of Thailand.

Window into the Wild

Format: 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Singapore's animal sanctuaries have been transformed into the Mandai Wildlife Reserve, a world leading nature destination across a 126-hectare site. With exclusive access, we go behind the scenes of this decade-long transformation, meeting the people and animals who create and inhabit this precious ecosystem - from rivers to rainforests and beyond.

In the Path of Giants

Format: 1 x 90 / 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

In Southern Bangladesh, hungry wild elephants trapped by the world’s largest refugee camp are rampaging over local farmland. With no easy solution, this award-winning film reveals how a Rohingya refugee, an indigenous farmer, a Bengali forest ranger and the elephants are trapped in an impossible fight for land, freedom and a place to call home.

Wild Family: Living with Jaguars

Format: 1 x 52 / 5 x 26 / 1 x 90
Broadcaster: ZDF/Arte, Box Brazil

For over 20 years, Leandro Silveira has lived with his wife, son, 20 jaguars and other endangered animals in the Jaguar Institute he founded in the heart of the Brazilian savannah. Filmed over several years, we follow this unique and wild family as they devote their lives to protecting a diverse range of exotic creatures, great and small.

Diving With Great White Sharks

Format: 1 x 50

Renowned cinematographer Andy Casagrande draws on two decades of Shark Week experience for this immersive portrait of the ocean's most iconic predator. From the volcanic Guadalupe Island to the untamed swells of South Africa's coastlines and the historic hunting grounds of New Zealand, take a global trek across the planet's most electrifying great white shark hotspots.

Wild World Diaries

Format: 13 x 50
Broadcaster: SABC

Join veteran ecologist Dr Francois Odendaal as he retraces his steps and ventures to some of the planet's most remote ecosystems, that have marked his lifetime of conservation and research. From deserts and rainforests to mountains and coral seas across the world, he explores how our most unique ecosystems have transformed over the decades.

Life of a Beast

Format: 1 x 50
Broadcaster: Yle

Come face to face with the bears, wolves and pups that inhabit Finland's frosty landscapes, where humans and beasts have coexisted for over a thousand years. But as more and more species become threatened, this urgent documentary brings us closer than ever to the wildest of Finland's animals; both terrifying and adorable, deadly yet endangered.

Wild Wetlands

Format: 1 x 50
Broadcaster: Yle

Plunge into the freezing waters of Finland's wild wetlands: a unique ecosystem that houses a world of predators and prey, with animals both big and small, feathered and furred. From brown bears and wolverines, to peregrine falcons and baby owls, this beautifully captured wildlife documentary tells the story of Finland's wetlands through seasons.

Scotland's Wildcats: Saving the Highland Tiger

Format: 2 x 45
Broadcaster: BBC

Once a symbol of Scotland's wild spirit, today fewer than 100 Scottish wildcats remain. This film follows the race to save Britain's only native wildcat species from the brink of extinction, as conservationists in the Highland Wildlife Park fight habitat loss, inter-species breeding and time itself.

The Message of the Lyrebird

Format: 1 x 60
Broadcaster: SBS

The lyrebird can famously mimic man-made sounds, like that of a camera clicking or a chainsaw chopping down a tree. In this investigative eco-mystery, we follow a group of scientists, activists and sound recordists deep into Australia's forests, as they study its song and try to find out what the elusive lyrebird's message might mean for humanity.

The Curious World of the Capybara

Format: 1 x 52 / 1 x 70

The world's largest rodent and the internet's goofiest star, the capybara has become a global phenomenon. Trace its journey to social media stardom from Brazil's wild wetlands across the UK, Japan and USA. Meet a man with 300 capybara friends, visit the most famous capybara cafe in the world, follow the capybara 'on the run' from a UK zoo and discover a deeper story behind the memes.

The Keepers of the Pigs

Format: 1 x 70

Too often dismissed as a dopey pet, this film exhumes the grand history of the guinea pig, from ancient dinner tables to pampered suburban sofas. From the UK and Europe to Peru, follow a humourous, heartfelt journey to save mistreated guinea pigs, meet passionate rescuers and discover a complex history shaped by culture, companionship and changing human attitudes across generations.

Cézanne: The Struggle for Modernism

Format: 1 x 52
Broadcaster: ZDF/Arte

For the first time, Paul Cézanne's estate is open to the public. Within its walls, Cézanne carved out a radical new style, earning him the title 'father of modernity' from Picasso. Through selected masterpieces, rare photographs and testimony from his great-grandson, this intimate portrait reveals the trials and tribulations that forged his legacy.

Hélène de Beauvoir: The Forgotten Painter

Format: 1 x 52
Broadcaster: ZDF/Arte

Praised by Picasso as an original, yet overshadowed by her famous sister Simone, Hélène de Beauvoir's work has remained relatively obscure, until now. Amid an art world reappraisal, her paintings and writings reveal fierce feminist activism, a fraught sororal bond and a legacy worthy of the greats.

Eric Ravilious: Drawn to War

Format: 1 x 60 / 1 x 90
Broadcaster: Sky Arts

This fascinating portrait of war painter Eric Ravilious movingly argues for his place as a vital figure upon the landscape of British art. As the first British War Artist to die in the Second World War, his life was as compelling and enigmatic as his art. With contributions from artists Alan Bennett, Grayson Perry and Ai Weiwei.

Claes Oldenburg: Larger than Life

Format: 1 x 52
Broadcaster: ZDF/Arte

Swedish-American sculptor Claes Oldenburg turned everyday objects into monumental art, revolutionising sculpture and challenging art world elitism. Ahead of retrospectives in Stockholm and Zurich, this film traces his journey through Pop Art, protest and poetry, with crucial insights from his family, fellow artists and curators who shaped his legacy.

Endangered Crafts

Format: 12 x 30

Travelling across three continents, host Tal Danai meets the makers keeping vanishing traditions alive. Bringing together historians, curators, artists and even Britain's Queen Camilla, the series celebrates the heritage at the heart of each craft and showcases skills shaped by generations of artisans, ultimately asking what else is lost if we allow centuries of knowledge to disappear?

Shermin's Manga Mayhem

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

After legendary manga artist Kentaro Miura's untimely passing, his unfinished masterpiece, Berserk, is set to be finally completed by his friend Kouji Mouri. Now, devoted fan and anime writer, Shermin, is embarking on a captivating and unpredictable journey across Japan to uncover Miura's legacy and reveal her visionary idol's profound impact on manga.

The Theft

Format: 1 x 59 / 1 x 84
Broadcaster: TVO

The Ghazni marbles are 12th-century sculpted panels looted from Afghanistan, now scattered across Western museums. But who do they really belong to, and can they ever go home? With Afghanistan's museums operating under the Taliban's destructive rule, this film asks whether restitution is possible - and whether Afghanistan's treasures can ever safely return to a country where its cultural heritage remains under serious threat of destruction.

Paula McIntyre's Hamely Kitchen

Format: 27 x 30
Broadcaster: BBC

On Northern Ireland's spectacular North Coast, chef Paula McIntyre cooks a selection of mouth-watering seasonal recipes from her kitchen overlooking the Atlantic. Taking inspiration from her Ulster-Scots heritage, Paula adds a contemporary twist to traditional Irish dishes which are sure to delight family and friends.

Flaming Feasts

Format: 12 x 30
Broadcaster: BBC

BAFTA-winning presenter and chef Chris "Flamebaster" Roberts is showcasing Welsh cuisine beyond its rarebits. From dramatic coastlines and Snowdonia's hilltops, to the deepest quarries and Wrexham's football grounds, he mixes local ingredients, ancient traditions and international flavours with his sizzling skills. Let's get crackling!

Hidden Gems: Taiwan's Culinary Treasures

Format: 6 x 25
Broadcaster: TaiwanPlus

Journey across Taiwan to explore the island's rich culinary variety. From grand banquets to traditional kiln cooking, we meet the cooks keeping the taste of Taiwan alive. Discover how its unique history and culture have shaped its cuisine, combining Indigenous traditions with flavours from across Asia.

New Stirrings: Singapore's Food Hawker Secrets

Format: 3 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

Singapore's hawkers are among the world's best street food vendors, with several even earning Michelin stars. In this series, we get a rare look at the people behind the plates, from beloved family-run stalls to the young innovators using robots to reshape Singapore's UNESCO-recognised hawker culture.

Our Ocean Table

Format: 3 x 22
Broadcaster: Telus, CBC

Inspired by iconic Korean seafood dishes, Canadian-Korean food lovers Sonya Lee and Hannah Sung embark on a coastal culinary journey to uncover the stories behind the ingredients they love. From prawn boats to acclaimed restaurants, they explore the places where great food, cultural heritage, sustainability and local communities come together.

Pow Wow Chow

Format: 26 x 23
Broadcaster: APTN

Every summer, chefs Bob Chiblow and Shawn Adler hit the road, travelling across North America to serve frybread tacos, fried fish and more at Indigenous powwows; vibrant cultural gatherings that attract thousands of visitors. Follow the two chefs and their crews through the highs and lows of their colourful lives as travelling food vendors.

In Search of Heat

Format: 10 x 25
Broadcaster: CNA

Join private chef Kevin Lee on a flavour-packed journey through Southeast Asia, as he explores the world of chilli. Across Singapore, Thailand and Malaysia, Kevin discovers new fiery dishes and fading traditions, learning how spice has shaped cultures for generations and creating his own unique recipes inspired by the chefs he befriends on the way.

Salt of the Earth

Format: 6 x 23
Broadcaster: CNA

One of humanity's oldest creations, salt has long shaped global trade, rituals and civilisation itself. We journey across two archipelagos - the Philippines and Japan - to meet the people upholding rare and vanishing salt-making traditions, producing everything from earthenware salt forged by fire, to seaweed-infused minerals once gifted to emperors.

A Year in Snowdonia

Format: 4 x 47
Broadcaster: Channel 4

Eryri National Park (Snowdonia) comes to life in an extraordinary journey through the changing seasons. Narrated by Rob Brydon and featuring stunning above-the-cloud aerial footage, this series captures the park's breathtaking transformation throughout the year. From dramatic peaks to golden coastlines, history and identity run as deep as the mountains themselves. This is a celebration of a landscape shaped by weather, nature and its people.

Europe's Greatest Castles

Format: 10 x 52

Join us on a spectacular adventure around Europe's most picturesque and iconic castles. Across Belgium, Czechia, Germany, Scotland, Slovakia, Spain and more, soar above the turrets that inspired Disney's Sleeping Beauty, discover where Europe's rulers had their thrones and admire breathtaking examples of renaissance grandeur, gothic splendour and baroque extravagance, in Europe's Greatest Castles.

The Tattooist: A European Journey

Format: 6 x 45
Broadcaster: VRT

Step off the beaten track in this series and travel through six European capitals - London, Berlin, Vienna, Rome, Paris and Amsterdam - discovering each city through the eyes of its local tattoo artists. Blending travel, art and human stories, each episode offers a fresh and creative look at modern European culture, far from the usual tourist trails.

Unseen Iraq

Format: 4 x 22

For decades, the Western world has seen only one image of Iraq, but behind the headlines lives a vibrant community. In this off-the-beaten-track series, Iraqi-Australian Fay and her husband Parv travel through Mesopotamian marshes and lively street culture, to discover Unseen Iraq. Festivals, skate parks, footballers and snake charmers are just the beginning in this warm and surprising travel series.

China After Dark

Format: 3 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

A new generation is reclaiming the night. China's night-time economy is booming, with more than 60% of urban spending taking place after dark. With exclusive access across three major cities, discover midnight innovations sweeping the nation, from 24/7 microdrama production, record-breaking drone swarms and hypermodern E-Sport hotels.

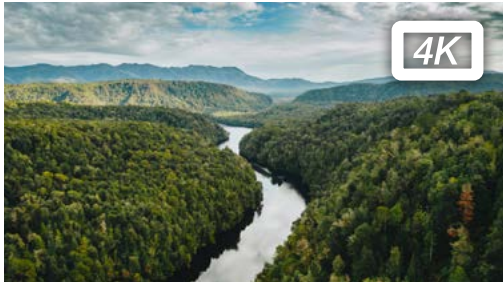

The Jacobite Railway: Behind the Magic

Format: 1 x 47
Broadcaster: Channel 4

All aboard the iconic Jacobite Railway for a spellbinding journey through the Scottish Highlands.

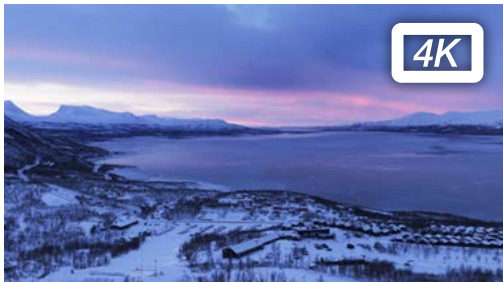

Departing from the foot of Ben Nevis, this 42-mile voyage crosses the famous Glenfinnan Viaduct, steams through rugged terrain and past deep lochs, bringing centuries of Scottish history and enchanting modern fiction to life. This spectacular special is narrated by Hugh Bonneville (Downton Abbey).

Untamed Australia: The Aerial Experience

Format: 4 x 52
Broadcaster: ABC

Soar over some of the most remarkable landscapes on Earth and swoop in to spend time with their wild residents. From rugged coastlines to the vast outback, over forests and mountain tops, experience an eagle-eye view of Australia, in this stunning aerial adventure across the Great Southern Land.

Aerial Arctic

Format: 3 x 50

Experience Europe's northernmost region across three epic seasonal journeys. From polar nights to midnight summer sun, across glaciers, fjords and alps, discover how some of the planet's harshest conditions have shaped unique ways of life in the Arctic Circle. Explore orca-filled bays, bask in the Northern Lights and meet Indigenous reindeer herders in this thrilling adventure.

Poland From Above

Format: 2 x 52
Broadcaster: Polsat

From Pomerania's wild coast, castles and bustling port cities, to southern Poland's dramatic peaks, charming medieval villages and royal Krakow, this stunning aerial journey reveals a land of contrasts. Discover how Poland's landscapes and history intertwine to tell a profound and uplifting story, while immersing yourself in its timeless beauty.

The World From Above, Series 14

Format: 8 x 30 (all series: 172 x 30)

The world's longest running aerial travel series returns, capturing more breathtaking views of global destinations from above. In this season, enjoy the splendour of our planet by soaring over the majestic snow-tipped mountains of Finland, the striking ancient landscapes of Nepal, the Viking hotspot of Shetland and the bustling, historic cityscapes found in the Netherlands, Estonia and Poland.

Man of the Hour

Format: 8 x 44
Broadcaster: Discovery, HBO Max

In the world's first ever series about independent watchmakers, timepiece fanatic Wei Koh travels across the globe to personally meet the artisans at the cutting edge of the 21st century manufacture d'horlogerie. From renowned household names like Chopard and Louis Vuitton to luxury specialists like F. P. Journe, Wei Koh examines the artistry and heritage behind the brands to discover what makes their creations so treasured and so timeless.

Visionary Gardeners, Series 1-3

Format: 15 x 23
Broadcaster: Vision TV

This beloved series returns to tour more of North America's most beautiful gardens. Meet the inspiring people behind these visionary gardens and discover the mind and method required to bring them to life. Along the way, explore the mindfulness benefits of nature and take in the incredible landscapes that serve as muses to these genius horticulturalists.

My Hobby Obsession

Format: 6 x 23
Broadcaster: CNA

This inspiring series celebrates the extraordinary passions of ordinary people who take their hobbies to the next level. From divers uncovering lost histories in shipwrecks and makers building mini cities for their cats, to doll couturiers and artisans reviving ancient knife-making, we reveal the devotion and joy that drive these obsessions.

Off Road Rescue, Series 1 & 2

Format: 12 x 47
Broadcaster: Telus

The highly anticipated second series drops us back into British Columbia's wild backcountry where paraplegic motocross legend Bruce Cook leads a daring off-road rescue team through the terrain's iciest ravines and roughest mountain roads, to pull stranded adventurers back from the brink. As temperatures plummet, recovery calls surge, old rivals return and newcomers join the roads. One wrong move can quickly turn a rescue into catastrophe.

Friday Night Thunder, Series 1-4

Format: 52 x 26
Broadcaster: APTN

Across four fume-fuelled series, witness the struggles and triumphs of five daredevil racing dynasties in this adrenaline-pumping display of motorsports. Follow along as our racers battle last-minute mechanical issues and overcome personal barriers to compete in one of the most dangerous grassroots dirt track derbies in the world.

The Grand Fishing Adventure

Format: 12 x 45 + 2 x 67
Broadcaster: ITV

Join Ali Hamidi and his angling crew on their mission to catch the biggest carp in the UK. Captured by live underwater cameras, the battle beneath the surface unfolds as big fish go head to head with tackle and tech. Featuring action, camaraderie, technical fishing facts and even riverside cooking lessons, can they reel in a catch?

More than a Crown

Format: 6 x 45
Broadcaster: BYUtv

Meet six incredible women who are preparing for the US National Miss Amazing pageant, competing against thousands of other girls living with disabilities and chronic illnesses. Following their rocky road to Nationals, this intimate series reveals how they navigate the world of pageantry and beyond with confidence, humour and a whole lot of flair.

The Big Pet Project

Format: 13 x 24
Broadcaster: RTÉ

Meet the wackiest pets and their proud, young owners across Ireland. Hosts Demi Oviawe and Adam Beales welcome it all: surfing dogs, painting ponies and goal-scoring turtles. Bursting with fun facts delivered by the resident vet and crammed with awesome animations, this rollicking journey is perfect for pet lovers, in all shapes and sizes.

License to Drive, Series 1 & 2

Format: 12 x 30
Broadcaster: Sky NZ

A fresh cast of drivers with disabilities take on the challenge of getting behind the wheel, alongside some returning favourites. Across this heart-warming, funny and unexpected series, learner drivers work with instructors and their families to build their skills and confidence, while discovering what it takes to make driving work for them.

All In: Adrenaline Without Limits

Format: 8 x 23
Broadcaster: AMI

All In is the action-packed series following Paralympic snowboard champion Tyler Turner, who lost both legs in a skydiving accident. In each episode, he faces real jeopardy and pushes past his limits while training with elite athletes to master unfamiliar adaptive sports, from para-climbing and wheelchair rugby to sit-skiing and stand-up hockey.

Lights Above the Lake: Europe's UFO Hotspot

Format: 1 x 60
Broadcaster: RTÉ

For decades, locals in a small town in Ireland have reported mysterious lights in the sky. Astronomer

Dr Eamonn Ansbro has dedicated his life to investigating and predicting these so-called UFO sightings, facing scepticism from across the world. Now he is finally ready to show the world the science behind his research, culminating in an on-screen event to prove we are not alone in the universe.

Haunted Places

Format: 4 x 52
Broadcaster: ZDF/Arte

What do legends of haunted places reveal about the real world? Haunted Places travels to the USA, Romania, France and Scotland to uncover the real stories behind Dracula, the Beast of Gévaudan and other iconic myths. Cinematic and spooky, this stunning series blends folklore, history and science to ask: what dark truth lurks behind every legend?

Weird Britain, Series 1-3

Format: 37 x 45 + 1 x 90
Broadcaster: A+E Networks

Embark on a gripping journey to discover Britain's most mysterious myths, legends and UFO cases in this adventurous series. Host Andy McGrath travels to the Rendlesham Forest UFO trail, and visits wild Wales, the spookiest corners of Scotland, bewitched Buckinghamshire and wacky Warwickshire all in search of ghosts, shipwrecks and witchcraft.

Swindlers

Format: 3 x 50
Broadcaster: RTÉ

From con artists and white-collar criminals to institutional fraudsters, meet Ireland's most notorious swindlers. For years they left destruction in their wake, devastating not only individual lives, but entire communities. Each episode untangles a different case of deceit, dismantling the personality, methods and downfall of these infamous scammers.

Detectives Down Under

Format: 20 x 52
Broadcaster: Nine Network

Australia's best detectives return to the toughest cases of their careers, revealing what it takes to get dangerous criminals behind bars. With illustrative re-enactments, witness testimony and rare access to archive and police case files, solve serial killings, homicides and missing persons cases, reliving each investigation from crime scene to resolution.

Thailand's Deadliest Serial Killer

Format: 2 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

They trusted her - the last mistake they ever made. "Aem Cyanide" watched her victims eat, drink and die, then took everything they had. At least 14 people were killed in Thailand's unprecedented killing spree; their bodies drained of life, their accounts drained of funds. With exclusive access to investigators, devastated families, forensic experts and Aem's own defence lawyer, this series follows the hunt to stop a killer who operated in plain sight.

Peer to Peer, Series 1-11

Format: 195 x 25
Broadcaster: Bloomberg

What makes a great leader? David Rubenstein sits down with the biggest names in business, finance, politics and culture to ask how leadership can be developed into a force for true achievement. Through revealing conversations, he explores the qualities, choices and experiences that distinguish exceptional leaders. New episodes feature former US Vice Presidents Mike Pence and Al Gore, Netflix CEO Ted Sarandos and tennis legend Maria Sharapova.

Life is Precious, Series 1-3

Format: 21 x 27
Broadcaster: Globoplay

This award-winning series spotlights extraordinary people living with rare diseases, who refuse to be defined by their diagnoses. From Giovanna, a Paralympic athlete with a neurological disorder and Bernardo, who has extreme epilepsy, to Raissa, living with a rare kidney disease, these inspiring individuals continue to pursue their passions and ambitions.

Limitless: Chasing Dreams, Series 1 & 2

Format: 10 x 47
Broadcaster: CNA

This inspiring series showcases remarkable youngsters who chase their dreams against the odds. Meet Saniya MQ, a 19-year-old Indian hijabi rapper exploring social issues through her music, Moza, a 14-year-old swimmer born without part of her right arm with Paralympic dreams and Long, a deaf Vietnamese artist who pours his passion into beautiful art.

Game On!
The World's Biggest Village Games

Format: 3 x 23
Broadcaster: National Geographic

In rural China, local sports festivals or 'Village Games', are attracting 100,000s of fans to watch factory workers turned athletes, who compete for chickens, pride, and glory. Explorer Thomas Heaton tries out the sports at the heart of these festivals – dragon boat racing, football and horse racing.

Welcome Home FC Barcelona

Format: 1 x 54
Broadcaster: TV3

Lionel Messi, Lamine Yamal and Pep Guardiola are just some of the legends who feature in this behind-the-scenes look at Barça and its newly crowned La Liga champions. As Camp Nou is rebuilt across two years into Europe's largest stadium, with 105,000 seats, the club's icons, past and present, reveal what makes Barça, its home and its fans so special.

Welcome Home FC Barcelona

NEW!

TVF KIDS

DISCOVER MORE

mipjunior®

